HUSBAND	Richard ATWEECKE als Weecke-2509	Yr of Birth
WIFE	Sarah-2508	Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - Richard ATWEECKE als Weecke-2509

All info from will (NEHGS Register, vol 47, p 518, 1893, xerox in file).

Will dated 17 Sept 1592, proved 18 Dec 1592. Identified as yoeman. Names 10 children; son Robert eldest. Other sons may have been named in birth order (& are so listed below): Richard, William, John the elder, Poole, John the younger, Josias. All but Robert may have been minors. Daughters named next, prob in birth order; place among sons unknown. All unmarried: Alice, Joan & Rose Weeckes. After specific bequests to each, left residue of lands to eldest son Robert & his (Robert's) mother. Made wife Florence & Robert executors, indicating Florence must have been 2nd wife. 1st wife (Ed Wickes says her name was Sarah) was obviously living; presumably divorced. (Robert MIGHT have been illegitimate, but unlikely bastard son would have been treated as eldest & given all his privileges.)

Will of son William (ibid, p 519) names "my mother Florence Wickes," so she was presumably mother of all of above sons from William on & possibly daughters too. Fact that Richard's will singles out Robert & his mother suggests she may have had only 1 child & Florence was mother of all others. Will construct FGRs on this assumption.

Will also named Richard's bros George, William & Thomas. George witnessed will. His own will follows & identifies him as of New Windsor, Berks, gentleman. Proved 10 Jan 1608/9. He is definitely not the George Wycks of Bristol (#2515) who Ed Wickes thinks might have been father of Thomas Wickes of Huntington.

From amount of real estate bequeathed, this was very prosperous family.

Other marriages:

Florence-6064	MRIN: 1754

WIFE - Sarah-2508

CHILD 1 - Robert WICKES-2517

Named in father's will as eldest son & executor. Therefore he must have been at least 21 in 1592. Father bequeathed him residue of presumably extensive lands.

His will is printed in NEHGS Register, vol 47, p 521, 1893 (xerox in file): "Robert Wickes of Stanes, Midd, gen/t, 1 Aug 1638, proved 8 Nov 1638. To be buried in churchyard of Stanes..." Names son Thomas, who is presumably oldest b/c he was sole executor, inherited all named property, & was directed to make payments to his mother & siblings. Also names "my son John Wickes, now living in New England;" son William, son Robert, wife Sarah.

This is prob as good evidence as we can hope for that this was indeed family of John Wickes of RI (2525). Birth order aft Thomas unknown; listed in order they were named in will.

Will also mentions "my cousin Thomas Wickes," who was overseer. Following will

HUSBAND Richard ATWEECKE als Weecke-2509 Yr of Birth
WIFE Sarah-2508 Yr of Birth

in above ref was that of "Thomas Wicks (sic) the Elder of Stanes, Midd, yoeman, 4 Mar 1647, proved 15 Mar 1647." This names "my brother Henry Wicks." 3rd will on this page is that of "Henry Wickes (sic) of Sheere in Surrey Esq, 6 June 1657, proved 23 Nov 1657. To the poor of Stanes ten pounds..." Thomas & Henry were prob Robert's cousins, which indicates there was a large Wick[e]s family in Stanes.

1994 IGI, version 3.05 lists 4 Thomas Wickes b. in Staines or Staynes b/n 1600 & 1613: Thomas, b abt 1600, son of Robert & Sarah; Thomas, b abt 1607, relative Horace Wickes (no parents listed); Thomas, b 23 Oct 1610, son of Henry Wickes; Thomas, b 1613, relative Horace Wickes (no parents listed). Thus we know John Wickes of RI not only had bro Thomas; he may also have had a cousin Thomas.

[NB: There are 2 Henry Wickes wills in this collection; 1 on p 519, 1 on p 521. The latter is the 1 referred to above, & this Henry was more likely Robert's cousin. He had no surviving children in 1657, but a son Thomas could have d b/4 then. The other Henry's will was proved 23 Oct 1610, which is same date given for b. of Thomas, son of Henry, in IGI. I therefore question that notation.]

HUSBAND	Richard ATWEECKE als Weecke-2509	Yr of Birth
WIFE	Florence-6064	Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - Richard ATWEECKE als Weecke-2509

All info from will (NEHGS Register, vol 47, p 518, 1893, xerox in file).

Will dated 17 Sept 1592, proved 18 Dec 1592. Identified as yoeman. Names 10 children; son Robert eldest. Other sons may have been named in birth order (& are so listed below): Richard, William, John the elder, Poole, John the younger, Josias. All but Robert may have been minors. Daughters named next, prob in birth order; place among sons unknown. All unmarried: Alice, Joan & Rose Weeckes. After specific bequests to each, left residue of lands to eldest son Robert & his (Robert's) mother. Made wife Florence & Robert executors, indicating Florence must have been 2nd wife. 1st wife (Ed Wickes says her name was Sarah) was obviously living; presumably divorced. (Robert MIGHT have been illegitimate, but unlikely bastard son would have been treated as eldest & given all his privileges.)

Will of son William (ibid, p 519) names "my mother Florence Wickes," so she was presumably mother of all of above sons from William on & possibly daughters too. Fact that Richard's will singles out Robert & his mother suggests she may have had only 1 child & Florence was mother of all others. Will construct FGRs on this assumption.

Will also named Richard's bros George, William & Thomas. George witnessed will. His own will follows & identifies him as of New Windsor, Berks, gentleman. Proved 10 Jan 1608/9. He is definitely not the George Wycks of Bristol (#2515) who Ed Wickes thinks might have been father of Thomas Wickes of Huntington.

From amount of real estate bequeathed, this was very prosperous family.

Other marriages:

(div)	Sarah-2508	MRIN: 1368

WIFE - Florence-6064

Cf husb's note for explanation of 2nd marriage.

D. date: was named in son William's will, proved 11 Aug 1620.

CHILD 1 - Richard WICKES-6066

Father bequeathed him " a tenement in Thorpe & land in the parish of Thorpe." He was apparently minor at time of father's d. in 1592.

D date: was named in will of bro Josias in 1621.

CHILD 2 - William ATWICK als Wickes-6065

Father's will bequeathed him "a tenement in Strowde in parish of Egham, Surrey" & other property.

Info from will (ibid, p 519). "William Atwick als Wickes...tanner." Written 22 Sept 1613, proved 11 Aug 1620. Named minor children Obadiah & Sara, mother Florence Wickes, bros Robert & Richard (latter as overseers). Wife Judith executrix. [Wills on p 520 identify her as dau of William Finch the elder &

Rose of Wat[er]ford, Herts. Mother's will show Judith was still alive in 1630.] Will also mentions "my Inn called the George."

CHILD 3 - John WICKES the elder-6067

It was unusual for 2 children in English families to have same names, but that was obviously the case here. Named as such in father's will, who bequeathed him "a close of meadow in Egham &c."

CHILD 4 - Poole WICKES-6068

Named in father's will & bequeathed unspecified property.

His own will (ibid, p 520) identifies residence at time of d.; occupation brewer. Written 2 June 1632; proved 28 June 1632. Split estate, 1/2 to wife (unnamed), 1/2 to children when they reached majority: John, Josias, Paul, Margaret, Elizabeth. Left "my 3 bros, my sis & my uncle Wickes" (all unnamed) 20 shillings apiece.

CHILD 5 - John WICKES the younger-6069

Named in father's will. Bequeathed "certain tenements &c in Staines."

CHILD 6 - Josias WICKES-6070

Named in father's will; bequeathed uspecified properties.

His own will (ibid, p 519) gives residence at time of d; occupation brewer. Written 15 April 1621; proved 11 Sept 1621. Left bros Robert, Richard & John; "my sister Judith Wickes" (widow of bro William) 40 shillings apiece. Left residue of estate to bro Poole, who he named executor.

CHILD 7 - Alice WICKES-6071

Father left her 10 pounds. Not known if she ever m.

CHILD 8 - Joan WICKES-6072

Father left her 40 pounds at day of m. or age 20.

She was prob "my sister Joane Field, widow" in will of her bro Josias, who d in 1621. He left her 40 shillings.

CHILD 9 - Rose WICKES-6073

Father left her 40 pounds. Not known if she ever m.

HUSBAND Robert WICKES-2517 Yr of Birth 1572
WIFE Sarah-2516 Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - Robert WICKES-2517

Named in father's will as eldest son & executor. Therefore he must have been at least 21 in 1592. Father bequeathed him residue of presumably extensive lands.

His will is printed in NEHGS Register, vol 47, p 521, 1893 (xerox in file): "Robert Wickes of Stanes, Midd, gen/t, 1 Aug 1638, proved 8 Nov 1638. To be buried in churchyard of Stanes..." Names son Thomas, who is presumably oldest b/c he was sole executor, inherited all named property, & was directed to make payments to his mother & siblings. Also names "my son John Wickes, now living in New England;" son William, son Robert, wife Sarah.

This is prob as good evidence as we can hope for that this was indeed family of John Wickes of RI (2525). Birth order aft Thomas unknown; listed in order they were named in will.

Will also mentions "my cousin Thomas Wickes," who was overseer. Following will in above ref was that of "Thomas Wicks (sic) the Elder of Stanes, Midd, yoeman, 4 Mar 1647, proved 15 Mar 1647." This names "my brother Henry Wicks." 3rd will on this page is that of "Henry Wickes (sic) of Sheere in Surrey Esq, 6 June 1657, proved 23 Nov 1657. To the poor of Stanes ten pounds..." Thomas & Henry were prob Robert's cousins, which indicates there was a large Wick[e]s family in Stanes.

1994 IGI, version 3.05 lists 4 Thomas Wickes b. in Staines or Staynes b/n 1600 & 1613: Thomas, b abt 1600, son of Robert & Sarah; Thomas, b abt 1607, relative Horace Wickes (no parents listed); Thomas, b 23 Oct 1610, son of Henry Wickes; Thomas, b 1613, relative Horace Wickes (no parents listed). Thus we know John Wickes of RI not only had bro Thomas; he may also have had a cousin Thomas.

[NB: There are 2 Henry Wickes wills in this collection; 1 on p 519, 1 on p 521. The latter is the 1 referred to above, & this Henry was more likely Robert's cousin. He had no surviving children in 1657, but a son Thomas could have d b/4 then. The other Henry's will was proved 23 Oct 1610, which is same date given for b. of Thomas, son of Henry, in IGI. I therefore question that notation.]

WIFE - Sarah-2516

Mentioned in husb's will dated 1 Aug 1638 as "my wife Sarah." [cf Robt Wicks 2517] Son Thomas directed to pay her 22 pounds/yr for rest of her life + 200 pounds w/in 6 mo of husb's d. Also bequeathed "all the household goods that were hers b/4 the time of our marriage."

CHILD 1 - Thomas WICKES-2512

Both Robt D Weeks & Stephen Wickes Genealogies agree on this & other 2 bros of John Wickes. Birth order not known, but Thomas presumed oldest b/c he inherited all father's lands & was executor of his will [cf Robt Wickes 2517]. B date from 1994 IGI & consistent w/ age of an oldest son at time of father's d.

It's tempting to think this was the Thomas Wickes who settled in Huntington and established another Wickes line there. However, that is highly unlikely. 1) There is no evidence this Thomas emigrated, & that would have been unlikely in view of the extensive property he inherited. 2) Bro John, who emigrated & settled in RI is known to have been follower of a man who claimed "transcendental enlightenment in spiritual matters." Thomas Wickes of Huntington, on the other hand, was an extremely rigid & orthodox Puritan. It's possible 2 members of same family could have had such religious differences, but this is prob further evidence against their being related.

HUSBAND Robert WICKES-2517 Yr of Birth 1572
WIFE Sarah-2516 Yr of Birth

CHILD 2 - John WICKES-2525

B, bpt & m dates: Ed Wickes. Named in father's will dated 1 Aug 1638 [cf Robt Wickes 2517] as "my son John Wickes, now living in New England..." Bro Thomas directed to pay him 200 pounds "at the Feast of the birth of our Lord God next coming [& if John were to d in meantime] said sum...shall be to the use of his children, equally,...until they ccomplish their several ages of one & 20..." [THIS PROVES JOHN HAD 2 OR MORE MINOR CHILDREN IN 1638. UNLESS HE EMIGRATED MUCH EARLIER THAN 1635, WHEN HE IS 1ST RECORDED IN AMERICA, HE MUST HAVE MARRIED IN ENGLAND & PROB HAD 1 OR MORE CHILDREN THERE.] Bro Thomas also directed to pay him 120 pounds on or b/4 26 Mar 1640 if John demanded it. Finally, was to divide 300 pounds left to bro William with bro Robert if William died.

Coldham [Complete Book of Emigrants, 1607-1660] mentions John & Robert Wickes. Possibly John & his bro? Not mentioned in other 2 std sources [Banks & Hotten]. Latter mentions Thomas Weekes, age 23 in 1635 (cf note #1180), which would put him in same age range as John, but Ed Wickes does not think they were related. [Cf Thomas Wickes 2512 for evidence confirming this.]

According to Updike [Updike, W, "A History of the Episcopal Church in Warwick, RI," Boston, Merrymount Press, 1907, pp 131 & 410-11, excerpt in Lewis/Pratt file], he "embarked at London, in ship Hopewell, w/ his wife Mary & his infant daughter Ann, in Sept 1635." He was a tanner. In 1907 "traces of his tan vats are still visible near the east end of the old Lippitt house, at Old Warwick."

From Robt D Weeks Genealogy: "John, from Staines, Middlesex, England, where he had bros Thomas, Robert, William,...was at Plymouth in 1635; was made freeman in 1636; in 1638 he sold his property there & removed to island of Aquidneck, near Portsmouth, NH (sic). [Aquidneck is in Narragansett Bay, RI; Weeks must have meant RI.] He was follower of Samuel Gorton; made himself obnoxious to the authorities of Massachusetts Colony by his peculiar religious & political notions; was imprisioned for a time with Gorton & others; after being set at liberty, he went to RI & settled what is now Warwick, being one of original purchasers from Indians in 1642/3. He had son John: no record has been found of any other..." [p 232] "He had w. Mary & children Ann or Hannah (m William Barton), Mary (m Francis Gisborne), Elizabeth (m 1st Richard Townsend, 2nd Richard Smith), John (m Rose Townsend), & had Robert & perhaps others..." [Vol 2, p 89]

From Stephen Wickes Genealogy: "John Wickes was in Plymouth Colony in 1635 & was made freeman in 1636. He was received as inhabitant of RI in 1639 & was one of the original purchasers of Warwick, RI, in 1642...He was from Staines, Middlesex, England, & had in England bros Thomas, Robert & William. His son

WIFE Sarah-2516 Yr of Birth

John migrated to Oyster Bay, LI, & settled at Mosketo Cove, in that town. While here, he m Rose, a dau of John Townsend. He then returned to RI & settled on the old John Wickes estate...John Wickes of RI was a follower of Samuel Gorton, whom made himself obnoxious to the magistrates of Mass & Plymouth Colonies, claiming a transcendental enlightenment in spiritual matters. He called himself 'Professor of the mysteries of Christ,' taught that in himself & other true believers, 'the child is born, a son is given,' & blessed God that he was not brought up in the schools of human learning...It was because of their religious belief that they left Mass Colony & having purchased a tract at Shawomit, in RI, in 1643, settled there, the laws of that Colony allowing freedom of religious opinion. That John Wickes was a man of mild & conciliatory character appears from the tradition of his tragic death. 'He became one of the 1st victims [in RI] of the war of 1675 [King Philip's War]... On the approach of danger, when the garrison had been provided & the inhabitants had generally repaired there, he could not be persuaded that he required any protection. From his past experience of the Indians, their good will & kindness to him personally, he doubted whether there was any danger. Notwithstanding the repeated admonitions of his friends, he ventured beyond the garrison. He did not return. His fate was known to his friends by seeing his head set on a pole near his own dwelling. His body was found the succeeding day. The head & body were interred in distinct graves, & 2 hillocks that mark the spot are still [date?] shown as the grave of John Wickes.'

"The Charter by Charles II of the Colony of RI & Providence Plantations (1663) names John Weeks as a grantee. Among officers chosen at a general election at Newport (1650) for Warwick, was John Wickes...Thus the spelling was not uniform in his own life..." [pp 13-14]

These 2 excerpts give only a hint of the checkered founding of Rhode Island, in which John Wickes played an active part. He was 1 of the handful of followers of Samuel Gorton & was involved in some, if not all of the following. [Source: RM Bayles, "History of Newport County, RI, 1638-1887," NY, LE Preston, 1888, pp 174-83, xerox in Lewis/Pratt file.]

Gorton was b. in England abt 1600 & landed in Boston in 1636. He went to Plymouth & soon came into conflict w/ church elders over the controversial religious beliefs mentioned in the Steven Wickes Genealogy above. (This is prob where John Wickes met him because John was made a freeman of Plymouth in 1636.) Gorton carried on "so mutinously & seditiously" when brought to court that he was fined & given 14 days to leave the Colony. This prob happened in 1638, the yr John Wickes sold his property in Plymouth.

[We should note here that when the Gortonites were driven out of Plymouth John & Mary Wickes had 2, possibly 3 small children. 9 yrs would pass b/4 they found security. How did John not only support his family but increase it to 5 children during these yrs of travail? Where were Mary & her children while John was stirring discord among his neighbors or in jail or (quite possibly) back in England? Mary, whose last name is unknown, is the unsung heroine of this epic.]

Gorton & his followers went from Plymouth to Narragansett Bay, where they settled on Aquidneck I. Both Gorton & Wickes were signers of the Compact founding the town of Portsmouth in April 1639. Yet Gorton continued to preach his heterodox views so noisily that, w/in a yr, he was fined, publicly whipped &, along w/ his followers, banished from Aquidneck I.

They went up to Providence, where even the tolerant Roger Williams couldn't stand Gorton. On 8 Mar 1640 Williams wrote that he "is now bewitching & bemaddening poor Providence." The Gortonites created such "tumultous hubbub" that 13 "inhabitants of Providence" (who actually lived in nearby Pawtuxet) petitioned Gov Winthrop of Mass Bay Colony on 17 Nov 1641 to "lend us a neighbor like helping hand & ease us of our burthen."

Providence was under no jurisdiction & had no charter at that time. Both Mass Bay & Plymouth Colonies were eager to gain an outlet on the magnificent harbor of Narragansett Bay. So, after an initial show of reluctance to interfere, Winthrop informed the petitioners that Pawtuxet was now under Mass jurisdiction & issued a warrent against Gorton et al on 28 Oct 1642. The Gortonites replied w/ a letter to the General Court in Boston in which an assembly of ministers found 26 blasphemies & denounced the authors as "worse than barbarous Indians." Then Gorton, Wickes & others, 12 men in all, fled into Indian territory beyond Mass jurisdiction, no doubt taking their families w/ them. There, on 2 Jan 1643, they purchased a tract of land on Showomet Bay (now Warwick Neck) from the chief of the Narragansetts.

In Sept 1643, the chief having been murdered after other chiefs complained they had been left out of the sale, Winthrop sent an armed party to haul the 12 Gortonites b/4 a Mass court. The prisoners were marched 70 mi to Boston, jailed w/o bail, tried & came w/in 2 votes of being sentenced to death. The following spring the General Court banished them not only from Mass but from Providence & the Indian lands. Gorton & his party defiantly returned to Showomet & informed Winthrop Mass Bay had no jurisdiction there. Mass Bay & Plymouth then set about to annex Showomet & all the Narragansett lands.

Gorton met the Narragansett chiefs on Conanicut (now Jamestown) I. & convinced them the way to avoid this takeover was for the whole tribe to become subjects of the King. On 19 April 1644 the Narragansetts informed Mass they would ignore orders from there & appeal directly to the Crown.

Knowing they would be arrested if they went back to Boston, Gorton & his companions (which prob included Wickes) sailed from New Amsterdam later that April to present their case to the board of commissioners of foreign plantations in London. This was headed by Robert Rich, 2nd Earl of Warwick, who was Gov-in-Chief & Lord High Admiral of the Plantations. Since the Civil War was raging in England, it's not surprising it took 3 yrs for the commission to decide, in July 1647, that the Showomet settlers could live on their lands in peace.

Whether all his followers stayed in London all this time we do not know. We do know that in 1648 Gorton boldly landed in Boston, avoided arrest by presenting a letter from Warwick, & was allowed by the angry & no doubt frustrated Gov to proceed safely to the new Colony of Rhode Island & Providence Plantations. (It had received a charter in March 1644, thanks to Roger Williams, who had himself gone to London in the spring of 1643 & also appealed directly to Warwick.) On

WIFE Sarah-2516 Yr of Birth

8 Aug 1648 the settlers at Showomet chose a town council under the order of the new RI General Assembly & incorporated the town, which they named Warwick after their distant protector.

Thereafter the people of Warwick presumably settled down to a relatively peaceful existence, at least until King Philip's War broke out in 1675. Knowing how closely John Wickes had been involved w/ the Indians, one can understand why he was sure they would not harm him & left the fort to search for his cows the night he was killed.

Gorton d. late in 1677 & was buried in a grave now unknown. But for his foresight in appealing directly to the Crown, Narragansett Bay & the surrounding lands would probably have been divided among Mass Bay, Plymouth & Conn Colonies. In 1888, Richard Bayles wrote, "Were his grave but known every Rhode Islander should drop upon it a stone as their tribute for the freedom they enjoy."

In the fullness of time, John Wickes' grand-son Thomas m. Samuel Gorton's grand-dau Sarah.

CHILD 3 - William WICKES-2510

Named in father's will dated 1 Aug 1638 [cf Robt Wickes 2517]. Bequeathed 300 pounds, 30 to be paid w/in 3 mo, remainder in 3 yrs, 10 pounds per 1/2 yr to be paid in meantime. If William died, sum to be divided b/n bros John & Robert.

CHILD 4 - Robert WICKES-2511

Named in father's will dated 1 Aug 1638 [cf Robt Wickes 2517]. Bequeathed 100 pounds, to be paid w/in 8 mo of father's d. Also was to divide 300 pounds bequeathed to bro William w/ bro John if William died.

This may be the Robert Wickes mentioned w/ John Wickes in Coldham (cf note #2525). As a younger son, he might have emigrated to America w/ his bro John.

HUSBAND - John WICKES-2525

B, bpt & m dates: Ed Wickes. Named in father's will dated 1 Aug 1638 [cf Robt Wickes 2517] as "my son John Wickes, now living in New England..." Bro Thomas directed to pay him 200 pounds "at the Feast of the birth of our Lord God next coming [& if John were to d in meantime] said sum...shall be to the use of his children, equally,...until they ccomplish their several ages of one & 20..." [THIS PROVES JOHN HAD 2 OR MORE MINOR CHILDREN IN 1638. UNLESS HE EMIGRATED MUCH EARLIER THAN 1635, WHEN HE IS 1ST RECORDED IN AMERICA, HE MUST HAVE MARRIED IN ENGLAND & PROB HAD 1 OR MORE CHILDREN THERE.] Bro Thomas also directed to pay him 120 pounds on or b/4 26 Mar 1640 if John demanded it. Finally, was to divide 300 pounds left to bro William with bro Robert if William died.

Coldham [Complete Book of Emigrants, 1607-1660] mentions John & Robert Wickes. Possibly John & his bro? Not mentioned in other 2 std sources [Banks & Hotten]. Latter mentions Thomas Weekes, age 23 in 1635 (cf note #1180), which would put him in same age range as John, but Ed Wickes does not think they were related. [Cf Thomas Wickes 2512 for evidence confirming this.]

According to Updike [Updike, W, "A History of the Episcopal Church in Warwick, RI," Boston, Merrymount Press, 1907, pp 131 & 410-11, excerpt in Lewis/Pratt file], he "embarked at London, in ship Hopewell, w/ his wife Mary & his infant daughter Ann, in Sept 1635." He was a tanner. In 1907 "traces of his tan vats are still visible near the east end of the old Lippitt house, at Old Warwick."

From Robt D Weeks Genealogy: "John, from Staines, Middlesex, England, where he had bros Thomas, Robert, William,...was at Plymouth in 1635; was made freeman in 1636; in 1638 he sold his property there & removed to island of Aquidneck, near Portsmouth, NH (sic). [Aquidneck is in Narragansett Bay, RI; Weeks must have meant RI.] He was follower of Samuel Gorton; made himself obnoxious to the authorities of Massachusetts Colony by his peculiar religious & political notions; was imprisioned for a time with Gorton & others; after being set at liberty, he went to RI & settled what is now Warwick, being one of original purchasers from Indians in 1642/3. He had son John: no record has been found of any other..." [p 232] "He had w. Mary & children Ann or Hannah (m William Barton), Mary (m Francis Gisborne), Elizabeth (m 1st Richard Townsend, 2nd Richard Smith), John (m Rose Townsend), & had Robert & perhaps others..." [Vol 2, p 89]

From Stephen Wickes Genealogy: "John Wickes was in Plymouth Colony in 1635 & was made freeman in 1636. He was received as inhabitant of RI in 1639 & was one of the original purchasers of Warwick, RI, in 1642...He was from Staines, Middlesex, England, & had in England bros Thomas, Robert & William. His son John migrated to Oyster Bay, LI, & settled at Mosketo Cove, in that town. While here, he m Rose, a dau of John Townsend. He then returned to RI & settled on the old John Wickes estate...John Wickes of RI was a follower of Samuel Gorton, whom made himself obnoxious to the magistrates of Mass & Plymouth Colonies, claiming a transcendental enlightenment in spiritual matters. He called himself 'Professor of the mysteries of Christ,' taught that in himself & other true believers, 'the child is born, a son is given,' & blessed God that he was not brought up in the schools of human learning...It was because of their religious belief that they left Mass Colony & having purchased a tract at Shawomit, in RI, in 1643, settled there, the laws of that Colony allowing freedom of religious opinion. That John Wickes was a man of mild & conciliatory character appears from the tradition of his tragic death. 'He became one of the 1st victims [in RI] of the war of 1675 [King Philip's War]... On the approach of danger, when the garrison had been provided & the inhabitants had generally repaired there, he could not be persuaded that he required any protection. From his past experience of the Indians, their good will & kindness to him personally, he doubted whether there was any danger. Notwithstanding the repeated admonitions of his friends, he ventured beyond the garrison. He did not return. His fate was known to his friends by seeing his head set on a pole near his own dwelling. His body was found the succeeding day. The head & body were interred in distinct graves, & 2 hillocks that mark the spot are still [date?] shown as the grave of John Wickes.'

"The Charter by Charles II of the Colony of RI & Providence Plantations (1663) names John Weeks as a grantee. Among officers chosen at a general election at Newport (1650) for Warwick, was John Wickes...Thus the spelling was not uniform in his own life..." [pp 13-14]

These 2 excerpts give only a hint of the checkered founding of Rhode Island, in which John Wickes played an active part. He was 1 of the handful of followers of Samuel Gorton & was involved in some, if not all of the following. [Sources: RM Bayles, "History of Newport County, RI, 1638-1887," NY, LE Preston, 1888, pp 174-83; WG McLoughlin, "Rhode Island, A History," NY, WW Norton, pp 15-39. Xerox copies in Lewis/Pratt file.]

Gorton was b. in England in 1592 & took his wife & children to Boston in 1637. He went to Plymouth & soon came into conflict w/ church elders over the controversial religious beliefs mentioned in the Steven Wickes Genealogy above. Among his other radical beliefs was equality of all persons, incl women, to preach; opposition to baptism & communion; the overpowering goodness & mercy of God; & denial of heaven & hell after death. This is prob where John Wickes met him because John was made a freeman of Plymouth in 1636.

Gorton's maidservant was charged w/ "offensive speech & carriage" (she is said to have smiled in church), & he carried on "so mutinously & seditiously" when defending her in court that he was fined & given 14 days to leave the Colony. This happened in Nov 1638. John Wickes sold his property in Plymouth that yr.

[We should note here that when the Gortonites were driven out of Plymouth John & Mary Wickes had 2, possibly 3 small children. 8 yrs would pass b/4 they found security. How did John not only support his family but increase it to 5 children during these yrs of travail? Where were Mary & her children while John was stirring discord among his neighbors or in jail? Mary, whose last name is unknown, is the unsung heroine of this epic.]

Gorton & his followers went from Plymouth to Narragansett Bay, where they settled at Pocasset Plantation on N end of Aquidneck Is. 19 families of "Hutchinsonians" (followers of Anne Hutchinson, whose religious views were similar to Gorton's) had migrated from Boston & settled there that spring (Mar 1638). Both Gorton & Wickes were signers of the Compact founding the town in April 1639. Its name was changed to Portsmouth (& Aquidneck to Rhode Island) in 1643.

On 24 Sept 1639, John drew a bill of exchange on his bro Thomas back in Stanes, England, in favor of William Withington "of Aquednecke in New England, planter." [NEHGS Register, vol 47, p 522, Oct 1893] This was presumably part of the money Thomas was to pay John under terms of their father's will as noted above.

This payment to a presumed neighbor suggests that Wickes was settling down in the new community. Yet Gorton continued to preach his heterodox views so noisily that he prob played a part that led to founding of Newport. He raised questions about the rightful power of the Hutchinsonian's leader, the wealthy Wm Coddington, & he advocated more popular democratic participation in governance. In 1639, Gov Winthrop of Mass Bay wrote, "At Aquidneck the people grew very tumultuous & put out Mr Coddington & the other magistrates & chose Mr Wm Hutchinson [as governor] only a man of very mild temper & weak parts & wholly guided by his wife, who had been the beginner of all the former troubles in the country & still continued to breed distrubance." Coddington left in a huff &, w/ 9 followers, founded a new town on the S end of the island, Newport.

Only 2 1/2 yrs aft the affair at Plymouth, in Mar 1641, Gorton again defended a maidservant in court. He refused to reconize the legitimacy of the judges b/c Pocasset had no royal patent & used a play on words to call them "just asses." He was fined, publicly whipped &, along w/ his followers, banished from Aquidneck Is.

They went up to Providence, where even the tolerant Roger Williams couldn't stand Gorton. On 8 Mar 1641 Williams wrote, "Master Gorton, having foully abused high & low at Aquidneck, is now bewitching & bemaddening poor Providence, both with his unclean & foul censure of all the minsters of this country...& also denying all visible & external ordinances." When Gorton applied to the town for admission as a freeman in May 1641, he was denied, being called "an insolent, ra[i]ling & turbulent person." His followers, John Wickes & Randall Holden were also refused.

Denied standing in Providence, Gorton & 6 followers (who undoubtedly included John Wickes) bought land in Pawtuxet, just S of Providence. However, the Gortonites created such "tumultuous hubbub" that 13 "inhabitants of Providence" (who actually lived in Pawtuxet) petitioned Gov Winthrop of Mass Bay Colony on 17 Nov 1641 to "lend us a neighbor like helping hand & ease us of our burthen."

Providence was under no jurisdiction & had no charter at that time. Both Mass Bay & Plymouth Colonies were eager to gain an outlet on the magnificent harbor of Narragansett Bay. So, after an initial show of reluctance to interfere, Winthrop informed the petitioners that Pawtuxet was now under Mass jurisdiction & issued a warrent against Gorton et al on 28 Oct 1642. The Gortonites replied w/ a letter to the General Court in Boston in which an assembly of ministers found 26 blasphemies & denounced the authors as "worse than barbarous Indians." Then Gorton, Wickes & others, 12 men in all, fled into Indian territory beyond Mass jurisdiction, taking their families w/ them. There, on 2 Jan 1643, they purchased a tract of land on Shawomet Bay (now Warwick Neck) from the chief of the Narragansetts.

In Sept 1643, the chief having been murdered after other chiefs complained they had been left out of the sale, Winthrop sent an armed party to haul the Gortonites b/4 a Mass court. They held out for 2 days, barricaded in a house & trading fire w/ soldiers b/4 surrendering. 9 of them (who almost certainly included John Wickes) were chained & marched 70 mi to Boston, jailed w/o bail, tried & came w/in 2 votes of being sentenced to death. The following spring the General Court banished them not only from Mass but from Providence & the Indian lands. Gorton & his party defiantly returned to Shawomet & informed Winthrop Mass Bay had no jurisdiction there. Mass Bay & Plymouth then set about to annex Shawomet & all the Narragansett lands; i.e, the W side of Narragansett Bay.

Gorton met the Narragansett chiefs on Conanicut (now Jamestown) I. & convinced them the way to avoid this takeover was for the whole tribe to become subjects of the King. On 19 April 1644 the Narragansetts informed Mass they would ignore orders from there & appeal directly to the Crown.

Knowing they would be arrested if they went back to Boston, Gorton & Randall Holden sailed from New Amsterdam later that April (McLoughlin say it was May 1645) to present their case to the board of commissioners of foreign plantations in London. This was headed by Robert Rich, 2nd Earl of Warwick, who was Gov-in-Chief & Lord High Admiral of the Plantations. Since the Civil War was raging in England, it's not surprising that not until 15 May 1646 did the commission to decide the Shawomet settlers could live on their lands w/o interference from Mass Bay Colony.

Holden returned to RI, while Gorton stayed in London to fend off Mass Bay claims. In 1648 Gorton boldly landed in Boston, avoided arrest by presenting a letter from Warwick, & was allowed by the angry & no doubt frustrated Gov to proceed safely to the new Colony of Rhode Island & Providence Plantations. (It had received a charter in March 1644, thanks to Roger Williams, who had himself gone to London in the spring of 1643 & also appealed directly to Warwick.) On 8 Aug 1648 the settlers at Shawomet chose a town council under the order of the new RI General Assembly & incorporated the town, which they named Warwick after their distant protector.

The yr b/4, in May 1647, a legislative session of all 4 towns in the united colony (Providence, Portsmouth, Newport & soon-to-be Warwick) met in Portsmouth. Randall Holden led the freemen of Warwick, so John Wickes must have been there.

On 8 July 1663, the recently restored Chares II granted a new charter to "the colony of Rhode Island & Providence Plantations" which listed John Wickes as a grantee.

In a 1665 census, Warwick had 37 freemen; i.e., there were 37, or perhaps a few more, families. We know 1 of these was John Wickes. His sons John & Robert might have been 2 more. There was a total of only 247 freemen (i.e., no more than 1500 white people) in the entire colony. There were 5x as many Indians.

After 1648 the people of Warwick presumably settled down to a relatively peaceful existence until King Philip's War broke out in 1675. Knowing how closely John Wickes had been involved w/ the Indians, one can understand why he was sure they would not harm him & left the fort to search for his cows the night he was killed (as described in the Stephen Wickes Genealogy on pg 4.

Gorton d. late in 1677 & was buried in a grave now unknown. But for his foresight in appealing directly to the Crown, Narragansett Bay & the surrounding lands would probably have been divided among Mass Bay, Plymouth & Conn Colonies. In 1888, Richard Bayles wrote, "Were his grave but known every Rhode Islander should drop upon it a stone as their tribute for the freedom they enjoy."

In the fullness of time, John Wickes' grandson Thomas m. Samuel Gorton's grandaughter Sarah.

WIFE - Mary-2524

Robt D Weeks says her name was Mary; Ed Wickes thinks it might have been Margaret. B date from Ed.

Cf tribute to her as "unsung heroine" in husb's note #2525.

CHILD 1 - Ann (Hannah?) WICKES-2523

She m William Barton.

Names listed in order given by Robt D Weeks Genealogy. Ann was prob oldest. Know from grandfather's will that parents were married & at least 2 children b b/4 1 Aug 1638, when will was written. According to Updike [cf father's note #2525] Ann crossed as infant w/ her parents in Sept 1635.

CHILD 2 - Mary WICKES-2522

If Updike correct [cf sis Ann's note 2523], Mary & her 3 other siblings were b. in America.

She m Francis Gisborne.

CHILD 3 - Elizabeth WICKES-2883

Ed Wickes thinks she may have been b Warwick, RI, in 1638, but that town (1st called Showomet) not founded until Oct 1642 & not named Warwick until 1648. Depending on accuracy of her b date & movements of father (cf note #2525), she could have been b in Plymouth (he left there abt Nov 1638), or most likely in Pocasset (later Portsmouth) on N end of Aquidneck Is. Wickes family was there from Nov 1638 to Mar 1641. [M. date & d. place from Ed Wickes.]

She was 2nd wife of Richard Townsend of Oyster Bay, LI. She m 2) John Smith of Hempstead, LI. He d 1694 & named her in will dated 1694. [Robt D Weeks, Vol 2, p 89, says his name was Richard Smith.]

Thus Elizabeth & her descendants became firmly established on Long Island. It is her branch we will follow until her grand-dau Hannah (1159) m. Joseph Wickes Sr of Huntington (1158). So far as we know, these 2 Wickes families were not related. [Cf. Thomas Wickes #2512 for discussion of this.]

CHILD 4 - John WICKES II-2521

He migrated from RI to Mosquito Cove, Oyster Bay, LI, to be overseer for Richard Townsend, his sis Elizabeth's husb. There he m. Rose, dau of John Townsend & presumably sis of Richard. He returned to Rhode Is in 1677, settled on his father's old estate, & was made a freeman by RI Assembly. The eldest of his 5 sons, John Wickes III (1677-1742), m. Sarah Gorton, grand-dau of the irascible Samuel. The 5th son of the latter marriage, Thomas (1715-1803) was b. on ancestral estate in Warwick & was a contemporary of Thomas Wickes IV of Huntington (1703-1749), altho not known if they ever met.

The house that John III built in 1726 was still standing (altho condemned) in 1907 "at the western corner of Warwick Neck Rd in Old Warwick," RI.

[All above from Updike, pp 132 & 410, cf note #2525 for citation]

CHILD 5 - Robert WICKES-2520

Robt D Weeks Genealogy gives this name in Vol 2, p 89, but in Vol 1, p 232, says no record of any son except John

HUSBAND Robert? TOWNSEND-2880 Yr of Birth 1591
WIFE Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - Robert? TOWNSEND-2880

Info: Ed Wickes. Originally located in Lynn, MA, source of many who later migrated to Long Is. Ed thinks father MIGHT have been Thomas Townsend, b 1594.

WIFE -

CHILD 1 - Richard TOWNSEND-2884

All info this family, Ed Wickes. He lists after Richard "Warwick, Pawtucket, Jericho, Jamaica, Oyster Bay." 1st 3 in RI, last 2 on LI. Apparently places where he located b/4 he finally settled on LI. He prob met & m. 2) Elizabeth Wickes while he was in Warwick. (If Ed Wickes' m. date correct, he was abt 36 at that time. Nothing known abt his 1st marriage.)

By 1671 he was well enough established at Oyster Bay to hire an "overseer," his wife's bro John Wickes (2521), who was to m. his sis Rose. Presume he d. at Oyster Bay, but Ed Wickes gives no d. place.

CHILD 2 - Rose TOWNSEND-6236

Nothing know about her except that she m. John Wickes, presumably aft he moved to Oyster Bay to serve as her bro Richard's overseer. Presume she was younger than Richard.

DOCUMENTATION

HUSBAND Richard TOWNSEND-2884 Yr of Birth 1620
WIFE Elizabeth WICKES-2883 Yr of Birth 1638

HUSBAND - Richard TOWNSEND-2884

All info this family, Ed Wickes. He lists after Richard "Warwick, Pawtucket, Jericho, Jamaica, Oyster Bay." 1st 3 in RI, last 2 on LI. Apparently places where he located b/4 he finally settled on LI. He prob met & m. 2) Elizabeth Wickes while he was in Warwick. (If Ed Wickes' m. date correct, he was abt 36 at that time. Nothing known abt his 1st marriage.)

By 1671 he was well enough established at Oyster Bay to hire an "overseer," his wife's bro John Wickes (2521), who was to m. his sis Rose. Presume he d. at Oyster Bay, but Ed Wickes gives no d. place.

WIFE - Elizabeth WICKES-2883

Ed Wickes thinks she may have been b Warwick, RI, in 1638, but that town (1st called Showomet) not founded until Oct 1642 & not named Warwick until 1648. Depending on accuracy of her b date & movements of father (cf note #2525), she could have been b in Plymouth (he left there abt Nov 1638), or most likely in Pocasset (later Portsmouth) on N end of Aquidneck Is. Wickes family was there from Nov 1638 to Mar 1641. [M. date & d. place from Ed Wickes.]

She was 2nd wife of Richard Townsend of Oyster Bay, LI. She m 2) John Smith of Hempstead, LI. He d 1694 & named her in will dated 1694. [Robt D Weeks, Vol 2, p 89, says his name was Richard Smith.]

Thus Elizabeth & her descendants became firmly established on Long Island. It is her branch we will follow until her grand-dau Hannah (1159) m. Joseph Wickes Sr of Huntington (1158). So far as we know, these 2 Wickes families were not related. [Cf. Thomas Wickes #2512 for discussion of this.]

CHILD 1 - Deliverance TOWNSEND-2375

All info from Ed Wickes. She was 2nd wife of Jonathan Lewis & mother of Hannah Lewis [Wickes].

She m 1) Benjamin Carman, b Hempstead, LI, abt 1654. He left will dated 1694.

CHILD 2 - Elizabeth TOWNSEND-6237

Ed Wickes names children #2-5 as siblings of Deliverance Townsend. Nothing else known about them, including birth order.

CHILD 3 - Jonas TOWNSEND-6238

CHILD 4 - Mary TOWNSEND-6239

CHILD 5 - Joseph TOWNSEND-6240

PLATT NEWSLETTER

Descendants of Richard Platt of Ware, Herts., and Milford, CT and of Thomas Platt of Burlington, NJ

October 1989 Vol. 7, p. 11
Ed. by Richard N. Platt, Jr., 132 Platt La., Milford, CT 06460 (203)878-6094

Our eighth annual reunion was held on Saturday, 8 July 1989, as part of Milford's Founding Families Day. 84 people attended the meeting, although not all were Platt descendants. The day began with registration at the Milford Public Library. All attendees were asked to sign on large sheets of paper under the names of the Founder(s) they descend from. We counted 87 descendants of Richard Platt, second in number only to the descendants of Henry Botsford. The total attendance, as far as we can tell, was 455. (Not everyone registered.) There was a genealogy table, souvenirs on sale from the Milford Historical Society and the Milford 350th Celebration Committee. Individual family meetings were then held, followed by a catered lunch. A ceremony was held on the Memorial Bridge, dedicating a new granite monolith mounted with a bronze plaque containing the names of the 18 original settlers and the 55 after-planters whose names were left off when the Bridge was built in 1889. The rest of the afternoon was taken up by pictures of descendants by most of the stones on the Bridge.

At the Platt meeting, Liz and Dennis Stubelt had on sale T-shirts with a Platt coat of arms that they had developed. The shirts are bright red with the coat of arms in white. They took the coat of arms reproduced in the Platt Lineage and superimposed the lion on a pair of scissors, in recognition of the fact that Richard 1 and his family were tailors. After the meeting was called to order, the officers present were introduced. Then Secretary Lois Anderson read the minutes of last year's annual meeting. Treasurer Winthrop Platt reported a balance of $1904.27 plus $42 collected at the meeting. President Richard Platt reported that he had written 62 personal letters during the past year and over 100 form letters were sent out to prospective members. He also reported that while a proposed constitution for the Platt Family Association had been written and published in the November 1988 newsletter, he had discovered that if we later apply for a tax-exempt status, it must contain language acceptable to the IRS. It was agreed that the appropriate changes should be made before final approval. No progress has been made on incorporation. It was voted that the coat of arms as reproduced on the T-shirt be adopted by the Platt Family Association, and used on the masthead of the newsletter and be described in the proposed constitution. President Platt reported that several members had requested photocopies of the 1963 Platt Genealogy, which is now available. It was suggested that a fund be started to finance a new Platt Genealogy.

This summer we went to the LDS branch library in Trumbull, CT, and ordered a copy of Microfilm #991326 England. This contains the parish register of Ware, Herts., beginning in 1558. Reproduced below is portion of the page showing the baptism of Richard 1 on 6 May 1604. Next to it is part of the page showing the baptism of Richard's father George on 13 May 1582.

DOCUMENTATION

30 Jul 1997

HUSBAND	Simon PLATTE-4934	Yr of Birth
WIFE	Elizabeth-4935	Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - Simon PLATTE-4934

His name, occupation (tailor)& wife's name from Coddington, J.I., "Richard Platt of Ware, Hertfordshire County, England, & Milford, CT," Am. Genealogist, Oct 1954. Ware, a town 2-3 mi NE of city of Hertford, is just over border from Essex & was no doubt influenced by Puritan preachers; e.g., John Eliot, who was preaching less than 10 mi away in Nazing. Platte family had prob lived in Ware for centuries b/4 Simon's grandson Richard (2541) took off for America. Quite likely all 3 generations of this family were Puritans.

WIFE - Elizabeth-4935

CHILD 1 - George PLATTE-2913

Bpt. from Parish Register, LDS microfilm #991326 (copy in file). Other info from Coddington [cf Simon Platte #4934 for citation]. He was tailor like his father. George had 5 children, of whom Richard (2541) was 3rd. Names of others not known.

No evidence that George & wife went to America w/ their son Richard but they could have. Others in Great Migration (e.g., Edmund & Martha Wood, Richard & Sarah Lyman, Thomas & Elizabeth Ford) emigrated in their 50s w/ grown children.

WILLIAM LUM

Great x 4 grandfather of Mary Platt

HUSBAND William LUM-4942 Yr of Birth 1552
WIFE Agnes BAYRSTOW-4943 Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - William LUM-4942

All info from Wood, Matthew, "English Origins of the Mitchell, Wood, Lum & Halstead Families," NYG&B Record, vol 120, pp 1-9, 98-101,142-147, 229-236, 1989 (hereafter "Matthew Wood"), copy in Lewis/Platt file.

He was "William Lum (Lome) of Lighthazels," on boundary of Sowerly & Soyland in Halifax Parish, West Yorkshire. ("Lumb" in Yorkshire dialect is"a small wood.") His will, dated 2 May 1591, proved 16 Nov 1592, named 5 children listed in this FGR. Text in Matthew Wood p 144. Asked that he be buried in Halifax parish churchyard.

WIFE - Agnes BAYRSTOW-4943

She was daugh of Richard Bayrstow of Shibden.

CHILD 1 - Abraham LUM-6685

CHILD 2 - Matthew LUM-6686

He is mentioned in will of bro William in 1615 & was at bpt of his sons in 1615 & 1617. May have d. soon after in England.

His son John (bpt 15 June 1615 in Halifax) was prob the emigrant John Lum who appeared in Stamford in 1642. Matthew Wood pg 235 (cf Wm Lum #4942 for citation) theorizes w/o proof that John came to America as an orphan w/ his uncle & aunt Edmund Wood (4939) & Martha Lum Wood (4950).

John was w/ Wood family in Hempstead, LI, in 1644, & was 1 of that town's original proprietors. By 1651, he was in Southampton, where he was granted 100 acres in 1653. He was involved in purchase of land from Indians in Huntington in 1657, & in 1662 was on committee to screen religious orthodoxy of prospective inhabitants of that town. Other members of this committee are familiar: Thomas Wickes (1180), James Chichester (6220), & Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936), who was son of Martha Lum Wood mentioned above. Thus John Lum & Jonas Wood were grandsons of Wm Lum (4942). John moved to Fairfield, CT, bef 1667 & was still there in 1673. He witnessed will of Jonas Wood in 1689 in Huntington.

CHILD 3 - Grace LUM-6687

She "died young."

CHILD 4 - William LUM Jr.-6688

CHILD 5 - John LUM-6689

CHILD 6 - Martha LUM-4940

She had all 6 of her children in Halifax. Her youngest was 13 when the family went to America. She was abt 44 then.

HUSBAND George PLATTE-2913 Yr of Birth
WIFE Mary-4933 Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - George PLATTE-2913

Bpt. from Parish Register, LDS microfilm #991326 (copy in file). Other info from Coddington [cf Simon Platte #4934 for citation]. He was tailor like his father. George had 5 children, of whom Richard (2541) was 3rd. Names of others not known.

No evidence that George & wife went to America w/ their son Richard but they could have. Others in Great Migration (e.g., Edmund & Martha Wood, Richard & Sarah Lyman, Thomas & Elizabeth Ford) emigrated in their 50s w/ grown children.

WIFE - Mary-4933

Wife's name from Coddington.

CHILD 1 - Richard PLATTE-2541

Sources: Bpt: Parish Register LDS microfilm #991346; Platt Genealogy [cf Philip Platt #1175 for citation]; Robertson, Vol 2, pp 87-94 [copy in Platt/Lewis file; cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation].

As noted in grandfather Simon's note (4943), he was likely a Puritan. Since his grandfather & father were tailors, Richard prob was too, altho this not mentioned in bio notes.

He emigrated in late 1638 or early 1639 w/ wife Mary & 4 of their 5 oldest children. (Samuel may have d. on voyage.) They were settled in New Haven in 1639. Here Richard had estate worth 200 pounds: 20 acres in 1st Division, 4 acres in the Neck, 12 acres of meadow, 48 acres in 2nd Division. (Part of this property was on S side of Chapel St near College St, adjoining land of Rev Peter Prudden in so-called "Hertfordshire Quarter.") He kept some of this land but later that yr followed Rev Prudden & others from Herts 10 mi west to found Milford. This was still part of New Haven Colony & prompted not by dissent but by desire to organize their own church & town.

On 20 Nov 1639, 44 church members were franchised as "free planters." Richard, Mary & 4 oldest surviving children were named. (This is interesting b/c youngest, Sarah, was only 3 yrs old.) Richard owned House Lot #38, 4 acres & 1 rod, just south of north line of palisades.

Richard & Mary lived in Milford rest of their lives. He was chosen deacon of 1st Church in 1669. When he d. (date shown from Ed Wickes -- source? -- Robertson says 1684) he left estate of 600 pounds. Will dated 1683 has been lost but said to have mentioned 5 surviving sons & children of daughs Mary and Sarah, suggesting latter had d. bef 1683.

HUSBAND - John WOOD-4938

B place: Ed Wickes. Roydon is abt 5 mi SSE of Ware, just over line into Essex. It is abt 5 mi N of Nazing, where John Eliot, the Puritan leader, was preacher. Distance from Essex to Yorkshire ensures this family was not related to that of Edmund Wood (4939), father of Jonas, who m Elizabeth Strickland (4937).

John's grandson Isaac Platt (1178) m Edmund Wood's granddau Elizabeth Wood (1179).

WIFE -

CHILD 1 - Mary WOOD-2912

Bpt date & place, m date, d date all from Robertson, Vol 2, pp 87-94 [cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation]. Proximity of her home (Roydon) to groom's (Ware) -- abt 5 mi -- made this match a "natural." She m. at 23 & bore last of her 9 children when she was 44.

HUSBAND - Edmund WOOD-4939

Shelf is abt 5 mi NE of Halifax, West Yorks. All info from Matthew Wood [cf Wm Lum #4942 for citation] & Robertson [Vol 3, pp 105-115, cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation]. Both sources discuss confusion b/n 2 Jonas Woods in early Huntington records: Jonas "Oram" & Jonas "Halifax." These refer to their homes & were used to distinguish b/n them: "Oram" from villages of North- & Southowram in Halifax Parish. Jonas "Oram" was Edmund's son. Jonas "Halifax" was son of Henry Wood & Prudence Atkinson & prob not related.

Distance from Yorks to Essex ensures this family was not related to that of John Wood (4938) of Roydon, Essex, father of Mary (2912), who m Richard Platte (2541). Edmund's granddau Elizabeth Wood (1179) m John Wood's grandson Isaac Platt (1178).

Edmund prob brought his family to America in 1635 on the "James," which left Bristol on 23 May & arr Boston on 16 Aug. They may have been accompanied by his half-bro Jonas & his family as well as John Lum, Edmund's wife's nephew. Their emigration was a family affair. They apparently went 1st to Agawam (Springfield) b/c Edmund was party to an agreement there w/ Wm Pynchon on 14 May 1636 in which "the lotts of Mr. Matthew Mitchell [husb of Edmund's sis Susan], Samuel Butterfield [Susan's son by her 1st marriage], Edmund Wood & Jonas Wood, are ordered to lye adioyninge to mill brook, the wholl beinge to the number of 25 acres..." The Woods migrated down the CT River to Wethersfield sometime b/4 20 May 1639, when Edmund witnessed a deed there. Here they were joined by Jonas "Halifax" Wood & family.

Both Edmund & Jonas "Halifax" & their families were among dissidents who followed Rev Richard Denton, Robt Coe & Richard Gildersleeve to Stamford CT in spring or summer of 1641. (Also in this group were Anna, widow of half-bro Jonas Wood, John Lum, John Strickland #4941 & family, Thomas Wickes #1180 & Wm Rogers #4949.) In Stamford Edmund, his sons Jonas "Oram" & Jeremiah were granted 7, 7 & 6 acres respectively; Jonas "Halifax" received 8 acres.

By 1664 these perennial dissidents, dissatisified w/ Stamford & its parent New Haven Colony, migrated across LI Sound to found town of Hempstead under Dutch rule. There Edmund was granted 8 acres of upland & 30 of meadow; Jonas "Oram" 19 acres; Jeremiah 19 acres; youngest son Timothy 22 acres & Jonas "Halifax" 12 acres.

Hempstead was soon overrun by religious dissidents & malcontents who had been forced to leave England. Such people were odious to these staunch Puritans. Early in the 1650s his family scattered, Jonas "Oram" & his 2 married sisters Susan Clark & Martha Rayner to Southampton, where they settled on Peconic Bay; Timothy to Jamaica, LI; Jeremiah & his unmarried sis Mary stayed in Hempstead. The aging Edmund & his wife followed Jonas to Southampton & thence to Huntington, where they were located by 1657. On 7 July 1663, Jonas Wood of Huntington sold house & land "that was formerly of my father Edmone woodes," which suggests Edmund had d. recently.

[Jonas "Halifax" drowned abt 1660 while fording Peconic River on a trip to Southampton, thereby simplifying the lot of future genealogists.]

HUSBAND Edmund WOOD-4939 Yr of Birth 1585
WIFE Martha LUM-4940 Yr of Birth 1591

WIFE - Martha LUM-4940

She had all 6 of her children in Halifax. Her youngest was 13 when the family went to America. She was abt 44 then.

CHILD 1 - Martha WOOD-6418

She m.Thurston Rayner & eventually settled near her sis Susan Clark in Southampton on Peconic Bay.

CHILD 2 - Jonas "Oram" WOOD-4936

Cf father Edmund Wood #4939 for explanation of Jonas "Oram" & Jonas "Halifax" Wood. All info on this family from Matthew Wood (cf Wm Lum #4942 for citation) & Robertson [Vol 3, pp 105-115, cf Wm Roger #4949 for citation]. Copies of both in Platt/Lewis file.

Father Edmund's note recounts Jonas "Oram's" early yrs. He was abt 16 when he arr in America w/ his family. He was 27 when family moved from Wethersfield, CT, to Stamford, where he was granted 7 acres & m. Elizabeth, dau of John Strickland. Her family had migrated from Wethersfield too.

Entire Wood family moved from Stamford to Hempstead, LI, abt 1644, where Jonas "Oram" was granted 19 acres & Jonas "Halifax" 12 acres. In early 1650s he moved to Southampton, apparently to buy property for his father-in-law John Strickland (4941). Jonas settled near his 2 married sis, Susan Clark & Martha Rayner, on Peconic Bay, which divides the 2 eastern "tails" of LI. On 30 Oct 1655 Jonas "Oram" sat on jury that found against Jonas "Halifax" in a suit involving death of a mare.

By 1656 Jonas "Oram" had relocated in Huntington. On 30 July 1656 Jonas, Wm Rogers (4949) & Thomas Wickes (1180) negotiated the 2nd or "Eastern Purchase" w/ Indians which extended Huntington to Smithtown on the east. 23 July 1657 his father-in-law John Strickland witnessed agreement b/n Jonas & 2 Indian sachems. In 1658 Jonas was agent for town in petition to CT General Court to join New Haven Colony. 23 Jan 1659, as Jonas Wood Sr, he witnessed 1st will in Huntington Town Records (that of Jeffrey Este). 4 Feb 1660 Jonas, John Strickland & 1 other were chosen town magistrates. [In that yr, Jonas "Halifax", who had also moved to Huntington, drowned while fording Peconic River while on trip to Southampton.] 15 May 1662 CT General Court appt Jonas 1 of 2 commissioners of Huntington. 6 July 1662 he, Thomas Wickes, James Chichester (6220) & John Lum (Jonas' cousin, cf Matthew Lum #6686 for details) designated committee to screen newcomers to town for their religious orthodoxy & general acceptability. In 1665 Jonas was delegate to Hempstead meeting of the several LI towns.

Among his other activities, Jonas was also a surgeon! In Oct 1677, when he was 63, General Court of Assizes stated, "Upon intimation of divers Considerable Cures in Chirurgery done on several persons by Mr Jonas Wood of Huntington & the great good he is capable of doeing in that art, but that hee is not willing publickly to practice without some particular license of Allowance from Authority as the Law directs. There being likewise no other Chirurgeon in those parts the Court having re'c'd full satisfaction of the abilityees of ye sd Mr Wood in that faculty They do allow of his practice in Chirurgery which all persons concerned may take notice accordingly."

He d. in 1689 but his will was not probated until 1692. Children named in will: Jonas Jr (to whom he left "all my chirurgeon's instruments & all concernments of that kind such as salves & papers & directions"); Elizabeth, John (executor), & Phebe.

CHILD 3 - Susan WOOD-6417

She m. Samuel Clark & eventually settled in Southampton, LI, on Peconic Bay.

CHILD 4 - Mary WOOD-6419

She is not listed by Matthew Wood (cf Wm Lum #4942 for citation). If she was really member of this family, I est b. date fell b/n Susan & Jeremiah. So far as is known, she did not m & stayed in Hempstead, LI, w/ her bro Jeremiah.

CHILD 5 - Jeremiah WOOD-6420

He m. Elizabeth Gildersleeve, dau of Richard, who was 1 of the leaders of the dissidents who left Wethersfield, went to Stamford & eventually to Hempstead, LI. They were m. abt 1641, prob in Stamford. So far as is known, he remained in Hempstead when rest of family scattered across LI.

CHILD 6 - Timothy WOOD-6421

In 1664, when family settled in Hempstead, he received 22 acres. Known to have removed to Jamaica, LI, sometime in 1650s. He d. at age 37, & guardianship of his children was given to John Strickland (4941). Matthew Wood (cf Wm Lum #4942 for citation) thinks latter may have been their maternal grandfather & his unnamed daugh may have been Timothy's wife (cf _____ Strickland #6453). This daugh later m. Samuel Matthews of Jamaica, & his will names some of Timothy's children.

HUSBAND John STRICKLAND Sergeant-4941 Yr of Birth 1590
WIFE Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - John STRICKLAND Sergeant-4941

B. date est from fact he had 6 children when he arr in America in 1629.

Nothing known of his wife, not even 1st name. However, she must have accompanied him & their children from England & been w/ him until sometime shortly b/4 Mar 1663, when John was referred to as "widower" [cf below]. She prob d. in Huntington.

Source: Roberson, Vol 3, pp 23-9 [copy in Platt/Lewis file; cf Wm Rogers 4949 for citation]. Believed to have come from Westmorland Co. in NW England, immediately N of Lancashire. 1st known record in America in 1st proceeding of Charlestown, MA: "The inhabitants that first settled this place & brought it into the denomination of an English town was in anno 1628/29," followed by 12 names incl "John Strickline." Became freeman of Charlestown in 1631. Served on jury there in May 1631. Then moved to Watertown. Released from church there in Mar or May 1635 to remove to Wethersfield, CT.

He was close friend of Rev Richard Denton & Robt Coe, w/ whom he went to Wethersfield. [Several others in this genealogy migrated there abt same time: Thomas Wickes (1180), Wm. Rogers (4949), Edmund Wood (4939.] While in Wethersfield fought in Pequot War (1637), where he earned rank of Sergeant. 28 Mar 1640 sold to Geo. Wyllys house, barn & 3 acres on W side of Broad St b/n James Boosey & Mathew Mitchell & 1 of the 3 mile lots on E side of CT River. This was in preparation to leave w/ Denton, Coe, Gildersleeve & others mentioned above. Most of these families settled (temporarily) in Stamford, but Strickland went to Fairfield.

He atayed in Fairfield abt 4 yrs, selling his property there to Wm Frost b/4 6 Jan 1645 (date of Frost's will). Moved across LI Sound to rejoin Denton & Coe in Hempstead, where he was 1 of 6 patentees in Nov 1644. Shared in 1st land division there in 1647. In 1653 was 1 of 3 appt. by Council at New Amsterdam to administer justice at Hempstead according to laws of New Netherlands. 12 Mar 1656, as John "Stricklan" witnessed marks of Indians on agreement negotiated by Peter Stuyvesant. 11 June 1657 listed as having 15 "gattes" (gates), reflecting length of fence needed for his herd: 6 calves, 6 "cattel," 1 mare. He was consistently referred to as "Mr." in Hempstead records, an indication of his prominence.

Sometime in 1657 he moved again, this time to Huntington, perhaps to join his daugh Elizabeth (4937) who, w/ husb Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936) & her 4 children, had moved there in 1656. He witnessed agreement Jonas had negotiated w/ local Indian sachems on 23 July 1657. 4 Feb 1660, "Mr. Stricklan," Jonas Wood & Thos Benedict chosen town magistrates. 2 Dec 1661 he was named w/ 2 others to settle any disputes among Huntington neighbors pending next court session in Hartford.

Sometime b/n 1661 & early 1663 he moved again, this time to new town of Jamaica, where his old fried Robt Coe now lived. Deed dated 2 Mar 1663 by "John Stricklan...a widower of town of Crafford (Crawford) alias Jameco (Jamaica)" sold house, lot, barn, garden, orchard, meadow and commonage rights (all in Huntington, b/n properties of Thomas Skidmore [4958] & Jos. Smith) to Gabriel Finch. 8 Mar 1666 "John Strickland of Jamaick" sold meadow in Huntington to son-in-law Jonas Wood. Robertson postulates this last move might have been made to rejoin companion of his early migrations (Coe), now that his wife had died, his children (except for Elizabeth) were in New England, & his grandchildren (Elizabeth's children) had grown up.

No mention of Strickland in Jamaica record aft 1666, so assume he d. not too long aft that.

NB: Birth order of children not known. Note also he signed documents w/ his mark; i.e., in spite of his prominence thru all these yrs he was illiterate.

WIFE -

CHILD 1 - Elizabeth STRICKLAND-4937

B date est from minimum age of 18 at time of marriage in 1641. She was almost certainly younger than some of her siblings (& prob small child when she came to America) but, since b. order of children not known & few clues to ages of her siblings, where to place her would be complete guess.

She came from England w/ her family as early as 1629. Her family followed same migratory path as Edmond Wood's (4939) from Watertown, MA, to Wethersfield, CT. Her father went from Wethersfield to Fairfield, while most other families, incl the Woods, went to Stamford, which is where she m. Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936). This suggests she was engaged to Jonas b/4 they left Wethersfield.

D date est from fact she was not named in husb's 1689 will.

CHILD 2 - John STRICKLAND Jr.-6449

He remained in New England aft his parents crossed over to Long Island.

CHILD 3 - Jonathan STRICKLAND-6450

He remained in Wethersfield aft parents (& rest of family?) moved on. He served as witness there 23 Jan 1680.

CHILD 4 - Thwait(e) STRICKLAND-6451

He was in Dedham, MA, in 1643. [Does this indicate he stayed behind when family moved to Wethersfield; or did he return to MA from CT?] He m. Rebecca ____. Later relocated to Narragansett country of RI.

CHILD 5 - Samuel STRICKLAND-6452

Robertson say "he died early."

CHILD 6 - STRICKLAND-6453

According to Robertson, an unnamed daughter m. John Seaman. Matthew Wood thinks she may have been m. to 1) Timothy Wood (6421) & 2) to Samuel Matthews of Jamaica.

HUSBAND - Thomas ROGERS-4951

Robertson [cf Wm Rogers 4949 for citation] was one of many who believed Wm Rogers of Huntington was one of the younger children of the Thos Rogers who was on the Mayflower w/ his oldest son Joseph. Thomas, 33, & Joseph, 13, are recorded in Mayflower's log, & Thomas was one of the signers of the Mayflower Compact. Bradford's "History of Plimouth Plantation" (prob written in 1647) says Thomas "dyed in the first sickness [i.e., winter of 1620-21], but his son Joseph is still living & is married & hath six children...The rest of Thomas Rogers [children] came over & are married & have many children."

Half of "Mayflower Families thru 5 Generations: Descendants of the Pilgrims Who Landed in Plymouth, MA, Dec 1620, Vol 2: James Chilton, Richard Moore & Thomas Rogers," General Society of Mayflower Descendants, 1978, is devoted to Thomas Rogers' family & descendents, BUT IT LISTS ONLY ONE OTHER SON, JOHN. Furthermore, William's descent from that Thomas Rogers was demolished way back in 1929 by Louis E deForest (The Ancestry of William Rogers of Long Island, NYG&B Reg, 60: 102-104, 1929). The following info is from this source:

"On February 7, 1612/13, William Rogers, son of Thomas Rogers, was baptized...Thomas Rogers of Stratford-on-Avon, father of William Rogers, was not Thomas Rogers of the "Mayflower." The Rogers family was numerous and prominent in Stratford-on-Avon. Thomas Rogers, bailiff and alderman, who was buried 20 February 1610/11, was of this family. This Thomas had at least sixteen children, one becoming the mother of John Harvard of New England. The handsome Rogers' house in Stratford-on-Avon which the alderman Thomas built in 1596 is believed to be still standing." [deForest apparently got this burial date from Parish Register Soc Pub. 55, "Burials of Stratford-on-Avon," 1905.]

Thus it is not unreasonable to postulate that this Thomas Rogers, who d. 2 yrs b/4 William Rogers was b. & who had "at least 16 children" was William's grandfather; i.e., the father of Thomas Rogers.

Cf William Rogers (4949) for further info from de Forest.

In "Marriages, Bans & Proclamations, Holy Trinity, Stratford-upon-Avon, 1558-1895" I found only 1 marriage close enough to 1612 to have possibly been parents of William Rogers: Fraumcis Rogers to Elizabeth Sperpoint, 12 Oct 1602. These were clearly not his parents; perhaps Fraumcis was a bro of father William. deForest cited Parish Register Soc Pub. 16, "Marriages of Stratford-on-Avon" (1898), p 34 for marriage of Wm Rogers in 1631, but this apparently did not mention his putative father's marriage.

Bpt & m dates; bpt place from deForest [cf Thos Rogers #4951 for citation]

deForest links William Rogers of LI w/ William, son of Thomas Rogers of Stratford-on-Avon, on basis of records of latter town which "supply a family closely resembling the Rogers group of L.I:" Parish Register Soc Pubs #6,

HUSBAND Thomas ROGERS-4951 Yr of Birth
WIFE Yr of Birth

"Baptisms of S-on-A (1897) pp 81, 84, 118, 121, 126, & #16, "Marriages of S-on-A (1898), p 34. William, son of Thomas Rogers, was bpt 7 Feb 1613. On 2 Feb 1631 William Rogers m. Anna Hale. Their 1st child Anna was bpt 7 Mar 1632. The names & bpt dates of Wm's 2 oldest sons do match those of the Huntington records remarkably well: 1st son Obadiah bpt 29 Sept 1633; 2nd son Jonathan bpt 4 Sept 1636. After this, Wm Rogers disappears from Stratford-on-Avon records; specifically, no further children born nor deaths of Wm or these children. deForest therefore concludes (reasonably, I think) that William & Ann(a) took their little family to America sometime b/n Sept 1636 & 1640, when they appear in Wethersfield. We know 3rd son John was born in that yr (cf his note #6242).

Herbert Smith article [cf Thomas Wickes note #1180] mentions "...William Rogers of Huntington, NY, & close friend of Thomas Wickes..." Smith said he was relative of Katheren Rogers, who Smith thought was Thomas Wickes' mother but I have proven [cf same note] she was not. Cf this note for documentation that these 2 men stuck together most of their adult lives & that they were prob both natives of Stratford-on-Avon.

All following, incl info on his children, from Robertson, "Profiles of Settlers of Early Huntington," 1976, vol 3, pp 121-28, except where otherwise noted.

First definite location in America Wethersfield, CT, where he was deeded 5 lots "all adjoining as many owned by Thomas Wickes" sometime b/4 deed filed in 1640 [Stiles, vol 1, p 293]. Prob left Wethersfield w/ Wickes in 1640 & went to Stamford, CT. Then crossed to Long Island & prob located in Southampton abt 1642. Known he was NOT one of original settlers there in 1640.

5 Mar 1645: obtained order from General Court defining land rights in Southampton. 1648: owned house on main street which stayed in family for 7 generation [deForest]. 6 Mar 1649: made freeman.

1645-49: temporarily at Hempstead? Named among early proprietors & might have lived there. Know he owned land there b/c on 17 Aug 1735 widow of his son Obadiah ceded her rights to "the estate in the Township [Hempstead] formerly purchased by grandfather William Rogers, deceased."

1645-55: Lived in Southampton. Mar 1653 named among men to cut up beached whales. 8 Apr 1653 chosen town clerk. 6 Oct 1655 chosen "townsman." Aft 1655 his house in Southampton occupied by son Obadiah [deForest].

Prob moved to Huntington shortly aft its founding in 1653. On or abt 31 July 1656, he, Thos Wickes & Jonas Wood (4936) purchased 4 sq mi on which part of Huntington stands ("East Purchase") for 2 coats, 4 shirts, 7 qts "likker," & 11 oz powder.

Ed Wickes gives date of death 13 July 1664 (source unknown). We know he d. b/4 11 May 1667 b/c on that date deed from John Mathews to Thos Wickes described land bounded on S by lot of Widow Rogers (Hunt. Town Rec. vol 1, p 190).

WIFE Ellen-4959 Yr of Birth 1604

HUSBAND - Thomas SKIDMORE-4958

All info from Robertson, Vol 3, pp 10-15 [copy in file; cf Wm Rogers 4949 for citation]. He m. & had 1st 3 children b/4 sailing alone to America in April 1635. He settled 1st in Newtown, MA (Cambridge) where he acquired "1 dwelling house w/ about a half rood of land" on west side of Brighton St. north of Mt Auburn St (now Harvard Square). In 1636 was engaged by Gov John Wintrop Jr to assist in preparation for plantation at Saybrook. In 1640 he sent for wife Ellen & 3 children in England, entrusting a mariner, his "much respected friend" Henry Hazzard to sell his place in Westerleigh & bring his family over. In 1646 sold Cambridge property & moved to New London, at that time settlement of 40 families led by Winthrop Jr. Abt 1649 moved to Stratford, CT. In Nov 1660 sold property (Stratford Land Rec, Vol I, p 114) & moved briefly to Fairfild. Then he joined others migrating to Huntington, LI.

Date of arrival in Huntington now known, but he served as town clerk (date?) & by 1663 he owned a house & smithy at Huntington Harbor. 4 Mar 1669 he served as Jonas "Oram" Wood's atty at trial in Southampton (Riverhead, LI: "Sessions No.1," 1st entry). 22 Jan 1672 deeded his property to Epenetus Platt; abt same time was assigned part of 5th of the Ten Farms on west side of Fresh Pond. 2 Jan 1681 he rented his farm & house to Jos. Whitman for 3 yrs. 23 Apr 1681 "Thos. Skidmore sen shall have a piece of land joyning Epenetus Platt...to set up a house & shop upon, garden, etc. if said Skidmore shall remain among us & do our Smith work for us, land to revert to Town if he leave unless he leave a smith upon the place."

In 1682 he returned to Fairfield & d. there. Will dated Fairfield, 20 Apr 1684; proved there in Dec 1684. Left propertty to wife Sarah, son John & son-in-law John Higbie.

Wife Ellen d. aft bearing all 6 of his children. He m. 2) Joanne, widow of Daniel Baldwin &, aft her death, 3) Sarah, widow of Edward Treadwell. Sarah survived him only a few wks.

WIFE - Ellen-4959

B & m dates est from b of 1st child abt 1625. Know husb m 2x aft she d, so safe to est she d b/4 1680 & b/4 he moved from Huntington back to Fairfield.

CHILD 1 - Thomas SKIDMORE Jr.-6422

He was abt 15 when mother brought him & 2 younger sibs to America. Spent most of his life in Huntington. Father gave him his share of 5th of Ten Farms, which Thomas sold to Jonathan Lewis of Westerly, RI, in Jan 1682. In Apr 1683 he was granted 20 acres in Bread & Cheese Hollow & 20 acres on north side of Crab Meadow Neck. Same mo. purchased farm on Neck from Thos. Brush. He had 2 sons & 3 daughs [listed in Robertson, Vol 3, p 14, copy in file; cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation].

CHILD 2 - Dorothy SKIDMORE-4957

Known to have been 2nd of 3 children b. in England b/4 father sailed to America in April 1635. B date est from older bro's b date (1625) & likely age 22 at time of m. in 1652.

HUSBAND Thomas SKIDMORE-4958 Yr of Birth 1600
WIFE Ellen-4959 Yr of Birth 1604

CHILD 3 - Jedidah SKIDMORE-6423

B date est from fact father left for America in Apr 1635. She was 1 of 3 children brought to America by mother in 1640.

She m. Edward Higbie & they settled in Huntington. Husb was thought to have d. at sea, & bro Thomas was appt guardian of her children. Edward eventually returned & lived until at least 1684, when he was named in Thomas Sr's will.

CHILD 4 - John SKIDMORE-6424

He was 1st child born aft family was reunited in America.

He m. Susannah ____ in 1663. He lived for some time in Stratford, CT, b/4 moving to Jamaica, LI, where he d. at age 37. Left will dated 9 July 1680 & proved same day. Had 4 sons & 1 dau [listed in Roberston, Vol 3, p 15, cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation].

CHILD 5 - Grace SKIDMORE-6425

Notes

As noted in grandfather Simon's note (4943), he was likely a Puritan. Since his grandfather & father were tailors, Richard prob was too, altho this not mentioned in bio notes.

He emigrated in late 1638 or early 1639 w/ wife Mary & 4 of their 5 oldest children. (Samuel may have d. on voyage.) They were settled in New Haven in 1639. Here Richard r'c'd a full proprietary share & appears in 1640 Early List of Estates. Estate was worth 200 pounds: 20 acres in 1st Division, 4 acres in the Neck, 12 acres of meadow, 48 acres in 2nd Division. (Part of this property was on S side of Chapel St near College St, adjoining land of Rev Peter Prudden in so-called "Hertfordshire Quarter.") Early in 1640 followed Rev Prudden & others from Herts 10 mi west to found Milford. This was still part of New Haven Colony & prompted not by dissent but by desire to organize their own church separate from Rev. John Davenport's in a new town. He & 4 other Milford settlers held possession of their proprietary shares in New Haven at least until 1646.

On 20 Nov 1639, 44 church members were franchised as "free planters." Richard, Mary & 4 oldest surviving children were named. (This is interesting b/c youngest, Sarah, was only 3 yrs old.) Richard owned House Lot #38, 4 acres & 1 rod, just south of north line of palisades.

Richard & Mary lived in Milford rest of their lives. He was chosen deacon of 1st Church in 1669. When he d. (date shown from Ed Wickes -- source? -- Robertson says 1684) he left estate of 600 pounds. Will dated 1683 has been lost but said to have mentioned 5 surviving sons & children of daughs Mary and Sarah, suggesting latter had d. bef 1683.

WIFE - Mary Wood-2912

Bpt date & place, m date, d date all from Robertson, Vol 2, pp 87-94 [cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation]. Proximity of her home (Roydon) to groom's (Ware) -- abt 5 mi -- made this match a "natural." She m. at 23 & bore last of her 9 children when she was 44.

CHILD 1 - Mary Platte-6427

Father's 1683 will named her children, suggesting she had d. b/4 then, prob in CT.

CHILD 2 - John Platte-6428

He m. Hannah Clark 6 June 1660 in Milford, CT.

He was among original proprietors of New Milford, CT. Later moved to Norwalk, CT. Was named in father's 1683 will.

CHILD 3 - Isaac Platt-1178

Sources: Platt Genealogy [cf Philip Platt #1175 for citation] & Robertson, Vol 2, pp 95-103, copy in Platt/Lewis file [cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation]. B dates of all children from Huntington Town Records, Vol 1, pp 344-5 (Court Record, p 289).

Isaac was abt 5 when family emigrated to America. Cf Richard Platte (2541) for early yrs in Milford, CT. Prob abt 1662, when younger bro Epenetus reached majority, he & Isaac moved across LI Sound to Huntington. Several factors behind this move: land shortage in CT, fear of Indians (each Milford family had to provide sentry on palisades every 5th day), loss of Rev Prudden, who led the Hertfordshire contingent to Milford & had d. in 1656. W/in yr of arrival in Huntington, Isaac had m. Elizabeth, dau of Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936). Abt 4 yrs later Epenetus m. her sis Phebe.

6 Apr 1663 "Isack Plate" was chosen as messenger to Hartford. 12 May 1664 Isaac & Epenetus were made free planters "w/ liberty to act in the choice of public officers...in that plantation." 13 Dec 1664 Isaac & Thomas Wickes (1180) were chosen to collect rate (support) & see to comfort of new minister Eliphalet Jones. 30 Dec 1666 Isaac was named in Nicoll's confirmatory patent. 1669 showed he had land in East Field, commonage & meadowlands.

3 July 1670 Isaac & Thomas Powell named executors of the will of Thomas Wickes, which indicates closeness of Isaac's & Thomas' friendship.

12 Apr 1671 Isaac named as Town overseer. In Apr 1672 he shared 7th farm in Ten Farm allotment at Crabmeadow Little Neck w/ Thomas Wickes 2nd (1168), John Green (5092, husb of Elizabeth Jarvis) & others. 6 Oct 1673 Isaac & 3 others appt committee to ask Dutch authorities in New Amsterdam (who had reconquered colony from British) not to exact pledge of allegiance from Huntington but to put town on good behaviour for a yr.

Aft British finally took over what was now NY Colony, Gov Sir Edmond Andros ruled harshly. In Apr 1681 Isaac & Epenetus, along w/ Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936) & Thomas Wickes 2nd were imprisoned w/o trial in NY for seeking redress of town's grievances. On their release, town voted to pay their expenses & any damages. In spite of obvious risk, on 24 Sept that same yr Isaac was 1 of deputies on town's behalf to review hostility emerging from Andros' tyranny. Fortunately, Andros was recalled b/4 there was further trouble.

Also in 1681 Isaac acquired more land: 5 acres adjoining his holdings in East Field & 16-18 acres on N side of path to Stony Brook. He was appt town constable 1 Apr 1682. In 1683 his ratable (taxable) estate was valued at 177 pounds, 10 shillings. (Cf Wicks/ Jarvis Notes.4, p 20) He & Epenetus became 2 of 3 commissioners to constitute Town Court on 7 Apr 1684.

15 Mar 1687 he submitted bill for 5 pounds, 5 shillings, 6 pence to town for expenses in town service. This incl 2 trips of 11 & 5 days to NYC. On 4 Apr he & James Chichester (6220) were named commissioners. He was apparently town clerk at this time also. 20 Sept chosen to serve as assessor for 3 1/2 pence per pound tax ordered by colony govt. 2 Apr 1688 again named commissioner. Last appearance in Town Records on 1 Apr 1690 when he added 9 acres on S side of path to Stony Brook.

His will, dated 22 May 1691, left to eldest son Jonas house next to Jonathan Jarvis (5088), some land, animals & grain; to wife 1/3 of all other lands so long as she remained widow; to younger sons John, Joseph & Jacob equal division of remaining lands; to dau Elizabeth 5 pounds; to 4 sons & dau Mary equal division of remaining goods & chattels. 2nd son John was executor; overseers bro Epenetus & bro-in-law Jonas Wood.

CHILD 4 - Samuel Platte-6429

He d. either shortly b/4 parents emigrated or perhaps on voyage.

CHILD 5 - Sarah Platte-6430

She m. 1) Thomas Beach; 2) Miles Merwin. Her children mentioned in father's 1683 will, suggesting she had d. b/4 then.

CHILD 6 - Epenetus Platte-6431

He was 1st child b. in America, which explains gap of 6 yrs b/n birth of previous child (Sarah, 1636) and him.

He migrated w/ older bor Isaac (1178) to Huntington, LI, abt 1662. He m. Phebe, dau of Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936) & sis of Elizabeth, his bro Isaac's (1178) wife. Issue: Phebe, b 9 Mar 1669, m. John Treadwell; Mary, b 11 Jan 1672, m Timothy Carll; Epenetus Jr, b 4 Apr 1674 (called "Major"); Hannah, b 23 Aug 1679, m. Jacob Conklin; Elizabeth, b 1 Mar 1682, m. Jonathan Swift; Jonas, b 24 Apr 1684; Jeremiah, b 25 Nov 1686; Ruth, b 13 June 1688; Sarah, b 4 Feb 1692.

Cf Robertson's bio [Vol 2, pp 87-95, copy in Platt/Lewis file, cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation] for extensive acct of his many activities in Huntington, his will and some of his progeny.

CHILD 7 - Hannah Platte-6432

She m. Christopher Comstock of Norwalk.

CHILD 8 - Josiah Platte-6433

He m. Sarah Caufield, dau of Thomas, 2 Dec 1669. He was among original proprietors of New Milford, CT. Named in father's 1683 will.

HUSBAND Jonas "Oram" WOOD-4936 Yr of Birth
WIFE Elizabeth STRICKLAND-4937 Yr of Birth 1623

HUSBAND - Jonas "Oram" WOOD-4936

Cf father Edmund Wood #4939 for explanation of Jonas "Oram" & Jonas "Halifax" Wood. All info on this family from Matthew Wood (cf Wm Lum #4942 for citation) & Robertson [Vol 3, pp 105-115, cf Wm Roger #4949 for citation]. Copies of both in Platt/Lewis file.

Father Edmund's note recounts Jonas "Oram's" early yrs. He was abt 16 when he arr in America w/ his family. He was 27 when family moved from Wethersfield, CT, to Stamford, where he was granted 7 acres & m. Elizabeth, dau of John Strickland. Her family had migrated from Wethersfield too.

Entire Wood family moved from Stamford to Hempstead, LI, abt 1644, where Jonas "Oram" was granted 19 acres & Jonas "Halifax" 12 acres. In early 1650s he moved to Southampton, apparently to buy property for his father-in-law John Strickland (4941). Jonas settled near his 2 married sis, Susan Clark & Martha Rayner, on Peconic Bay, which divides the 2 eastern "tails" of LI. On 30 Oct 1655 Jonas "Oram" sat on jury that found against Jonas "Halifax" in a suit involving death of a mare.

By 1656 Jonas "Oram" had relocated in Huntington. On 30 July 1656 Jonas, Wm Rogers (4949) & Thomas Wickes (1180) negotiated the 2nd or "Eastern Purchase" w/ Indians which extended Huntington to Smithtown on the east. 23 July 1657 his father-in-law John Strickland witnessed agreement b/n Jonas & 2 Indian sachems. In 1658 Jonas was agent for town in petition to CT General Court to join New Haven Colony. 23 Jan 1659, as Jonas Wood Sr, he witnessed 1st will in Huntington Town Records (that of Jeffrey Este). 4 Feb 1660 Jonas, John Strickland & 1 other were chosen town magistrates. [In that yr, Jonas "Halifax", who had also moved to Huntington, drowned while fording Peconic River while on trip to Southampton.] 15 May 1662 CT General Court appt Jonas 1 of 2 commissioners of Huntington. 6 July 1662 he, Thomas Wickes, James Chichester (6220) & John Lum (Jonas' cousin, cf Matthew Lum #6686 for details) designated committee to screen newcomers to town for their religious orthodoxy & general acceptability. In 1665 Jonas was delegate to Hempstead meeting of the several LI towns.

Among his other activities, Jonas was also a surgeon! In Oct 1677, when he was 63, General Court of Assizes stated, "Upon intimation of divers Considerable Cures in Chirurgery done on several persons by Mr Jonas Wood of Huntington & the great good he is capable of doeing in that art, but that hee is not willing publickly to practice without some particular license of Allowance from Authority as the Law directs. There being likewise no other Chirurgeon in those parts the Court having re'c'd full satisfaction of the abilityees of ye sd Mr Wood in that faculty They do allow of his practice in Chirurgery which all persons concerned may take notice accordingly."

He d. in 1689 but his will was not probated until 1692. Children named in will: Jonas Jr (to whom he left "all my chirurgeon's instruments & all concernments of that kind such as salves & papers & directions"); Elizabeth, John (executor), & Phebe.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD-1374
DOCUMENTATION

HUSBAND Jonas "Oram" WOOD-4936 Yr of Birth
WIFE Elizabeth STRICKLAND-4937 Yr of Birth 1623

B date est from minimum age of 18 at time of marriage in 1641. She was almost certainly younger than some of her siblings (& prob small child when she came to America) but, since b. order of children not known & few clues to ages of her siblings, where to place her would be complete guess.

She came from England w/ her family as early as 1629. Her family followed same migratory path as Edmond Wood's (4939) from Watertown, MA, to Wethersfield, CT. Her father went from Wethersfield to Fairfield, while most other families, incl the Woods, went to Stamford, which is where she m. Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936). This suggests she was engaged to Jonas b/4 they left Wethersfield.

D date est from fact she was not named in husb's 1689 will.

CHILD 1 - Jonas WOOD Jr.-6435

He came to Huntington w/ his father as boy abt 1656 & lived there rest of his life.

In 1681, along w/ bros-in-law Isaac (1178) & Epenetus (6431) Platt & Thomas Wickes 2nd (1168) was imprisoned in NY w/o trial for attending meeting of LI towns to seek redress from their grievances against arbitrary colonial Gov Andros. On release, town voted to pay their expenses & any damages. In 1685 he was named in Gov Dongan's confirmatory patent.

In 1683 his taxable estate was valued at 114 pounds. His father, then abt 69, was not on list of ratable estates. Cf Wicks/Jarvis Notes.4, p 20 for complete list.

Hempstead Town Rec entry of 15 June 1710 noted he resigned all rights to property "once his grandfather's Edmond Wood" (4939). [All info from Robertson, Vol 3, p 115; cf Wm Rogers 4949 for citation].

CHILD 2 - Elizabeth WOOD-1179

B & m dates from Ed Wickes, confirmed by Robertson, Vol 3, p 115. She was prob b in Hempstead, LI. D date: named in husb/s 1691 will.

She & her sis Phebe (6437) were m. to the bros Isaac & Epenetus Platt.

CHILD 3 - John WOOD-6436

B date, Robertson, Vol 3, p 115. He was prob b. in Hempstead, LI. He was named executor of his father's estate in 1689.

He inventoried estate of Jonathan Lewis (1174) w/ Capt Thomas Wickes 7 Oct 1708.

CHILD 4 - Phebe WOOD-6437

B date est from previous child (John, abt 1646) & prob age 20 at marriage in 1667.

She m. Epenetus Platt (6431) in 1667 [Robertson, Vol 3, p 115]. Was named in father's 1689 will.

HUSBAND - William ROGERS-4949

Bpt & m dates; bpt place from deForest [cf Thos Rogers #4951 for citation]

deForest links William Rogers of LI w/ William, son of Thomas Rogers of Stratford-on-Avon, on basis of records of latter town which "supply a family closely resembling the Rogers group of L.I:" Parish Register Soc Pubs #6, "Baptisms of S-on-A (1897) pp 81, 84, 118, 121, 126, & #16, "Marriages of S-on-A (1898), p 34. William, son of Thomas Rogers, was bpt 7 Feb 1613. On 2 Feb 1631 William Rogers m. Anna Hale. Their 1st child Anna was bpt 7 Mar 1632. The names & bpt dates of Wm's 2 oldest sons do match those of the Huntington records remarkably well: 1st son Obadiah bpt 29 Sept 1633; 2nd son Jonathan bpt 4 Sept 1636. After this, Wm Rogers disappears from Stratford-on-Avon records; specifically, no further children born nor deaths of Wm or these children. deForest therefore concludes (reasonably, I think) that William & Ann(a) took their little family to America sometime b/n Sept 1636 & 1640, when they appear in Wethersfield. We know 3rd son John was born in that yr (cf his note #6242).

Herbert Smith article [cf Thomas Wickes note #1180] mentions "...William Rogers of Huntington, NY, & close friend of Thomas Wickes..." Smith said he was relative of Katheren Rogers, who Smith thought was Thomas Wickes' mother but I have proven [cf same note] she was not. Cf this note for documentation that these 2 men stuck together most of their adult lives & that they were prob both natives of Stratford-on-Avon.

All following, incl info on his children, from Robertson, "Profiles of Settlers of Early Huntington," 1976, vol 3, pp 121-28, except where otherwise noted.

First definite location in America Wethersfield, CT, where he was deeded 5 lots "all adjoining as many owned by Thomas Wickes" sometime b/4 deed filed in 1640 [Stiles, vol 1, p 293]. Prob left Wethersfield w/ Wickes in 1640 & went to Stamford, CT. Then crossed to Long Island & prob located in Southampton abt 1642. Known he was NOT one of original settlers there in 1640.

5 Mar 1645: obtained order from General Court defining land rights in Southampton. 1648: owned house on main street which stayed in family for 7 generation [deForest]. 6 Mar 1649: made freeman.

1645-49: temporarily at Hempstead? Named among early proprietors & might have lived there. Know he owned land there b/c on 17 Aug 1735 widow of his grandson Obadiah ceded her rights to "the estate in the Township [Hempstead] formerly purchased by grandfather William Rogers, deceased." x

1645-55: Lived in Southampton. Mar 1653 named among men to cut up beached whales. 8 Apr 1653 chosen town clerk. 6 Oct 1655 chosen "townsman." Aft 1655 his house in Southampton occupied by son Obadiah [deForest].

Prob moved to Huntington shortly aft its founding in 1653. On or abt 31 July 1656, he, Thos Wickes & Jonas Wood (4936) purchased 4 sq mi on which part of Huntington stands ("East Purchase") for 2 coats, 4 shirts, 7 qts "likker," & 11 oz powder.

HUSBAND William ROGERS-4949 Yr of Birth
WIFE Ann HALE-4950 Yr of Birth

Ed Wickes gives date of death 13 July 1664 (source unknown). We know he d. b/4 11 May 1667 b/c on that date deed from John Mathews to Thos Wickes described land bounded on S by lot of Widow Rogers (Hunt. Town Rec. vol 1, p 190).

WIFE - Ann HALE-4950

M. date from deForest [cf Thos Robers #4951 for citation]. Bpt date from Ed Wickes, source unknown. If bpt date correct, she & husb were abt same young age (18) when married. Stratford-on-Avon record gives her name at marriage as Anna. In all Huntington records she is Ann.

Will dated 22 Nov 1669, inventoried 2 June 1670 [Sessions Book #1, p 3]. Bequeathed 40 pounds to oldest son Obadiah, same amt to his oldest son, & 6 pounds to sons John & Noah. Also mentioned daughs Hannah & Mary. Son Jonathan not mentioned but was living. Noah Rogers called him "brother" in a 1699 deed [deForest].

Few mo prior to her death she sold homestead to son-in-law Samuel Messenger. Had prob been living w/ him & dau Mary.

CHILD 1 - Hannah ROGERS-6245

No one seems to know anything about her except that she was named in her mother's Nov 1669 will. Could this have been the Anna who was William & Ann's 1st child? Since there was no record of her death b/4 her family left Stratford-on-Avon sometime aft 1636, she may have lived to grow up in America. Since she was only "Hannah" in the will, she apparently never married.

Placing her 1st in birth order is a guess, but we do know there was a dau b. b/4 Obadiah, the 1st son.

CHILD 2 - Obadiah ROGERS-6241

Bpt date from deForest [cf Thos Rogers #4951 for citation]. His mother's will identified him as oldest son.

He m. Mary ____, who was prob sis of Wm Russell of Southampton. Latter's will, made in 1678, called Obadiah "brother." [deForest].

Father gave him his Southampton homestead when he (William) relocated in Huntington b/n 1653-56. This property stayed in family hands until 1854. Because of this, presume Obadiah d in Southampton.

Will made 24 July 1689, proved 23 June 1692, mentioned wife Mary & 7 children, 1 dau being already deceased [deForest].

CHILD 3 - Jonathan ROGERS-4948

Bpt & d dates from deForest [cf Thos Rogers #4951 for citation]. M date from Ed Wickes, source unknown. Info on all Jonathan's 5 children from Robertson [cf Wm Rogers 4949 for citation].

Presumably moved from Southampton to Huntington w/ father, mother & younger sibs abt 1653-56, when he was approaching 20. He was admitted freeman at

Huntington 12 May 1664. Served there as rate gatherer, fence viewer & overseer. Operated saw mill at Cold Spring. [All from deForest]

In 1683 his ratable (taxable) estate was valued at 204 pounds, more than any of his Huntington kinsmen. (Isaac Platt was next w/ 177 pounds.) Cf Wicks/Jarvis Notes Part 4, p 20 for complete list & source. If Ed Wickes' d date correct (1707), he had already deeded his lands in parcels to his children (b/n 1699 & 1706 according to Robertson).

CHILD 4 - John ROGERS-6242

B date from deposition in Huntington 11 Sept 1676 which gives his age as 36. Since we know his father was in Wethersfield in 1640, John was prob b. there.

Moved from Southampton to Huntington w/ parents b/n 1653-56 while he was in teens. 12 May 1664 admitted as freeman in Huntington. 1667: named fence viewer & overseer. Know he was still there in 1676 (cf above).

24 Sept 1679: John Rogers "of Hempstead," brickmaker, quit-claimed interest in a deed in that town. Had he moved there? Sometime aft this moved across LI Sound to Branford & conveyed his land in Huntington to bro Jonathan. D w/o issue.

Some confusion abt 1st name. May be "Jonas Rogers" in Thompson's "History of LI." Yet there is no Jonas in Savage or any LI town records. Robertson [cf father's note 4949 for citation] thinks sloppy scribe could have written "Jonas" for "John."

CHILD 5 - Noah ROGERS-6243

B date based on 3rd bro's known b in 1640. D date & all other info from deForest [cf Thos Rogers 4951 for citation].

He m. Elizabeth Taintor (1655-1732) on 8 Apr 1673. In 1699 disposed of property in Huntington, styling self as "of Branford." (He prob moved there with bro John #6242.) Made freeman (presumably of Branford, deForest not clear) 11 May 1682 & deputy from Branford in 1704.

CHILD 6 - Mary ROGERS-6244

She m Samuel Messenger. Mother prob lived in her household aft father's d, & mother sold homestead to her husb shortly b/4 she (mother) d [cf her note 4950]. Therefore presume Mary d in Huntington.

HUSBAND Isaac PLATT-1178 Yr of Birth 1633
WIFE Elizabeth WOOD-1179 Yr of Birth 1645

HUSBAND - Isaac PLATT-1178

Sources: Platt Genealogy [cf Philip Platt #1175 for citation] & Robertson, Vol 2, pp 95-103, copy in Platt/Lewis file [cf Wm Rogers #4949 for citation]. B dates of all children from Huntington Town Records, Vol 1, pp 344-5 (Court Record, p 289).

Isaac was abt 5 when family emigrated to America. Cf Richard Platte (2541) for early yrs in Milford, CT. Prob abt 1662, when younger bro Epenetus reached majority, he & Isaac moved across LI Sound to Huntington. Several factors behind this move: land shortage in CT, fear of Indians (each Milford family had to provide sentry on palisades every 5th day), loss of Rev Prudden, who led the Hertfordshire contingent to Milford & had d. in 1656. W/in yr of arrival in Huntington, Isaac had m. Elizabeth, dau of Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936). Abt 4 yrs later Epenetus m. her sis Phebe.

6 Apr 1663 "Isack Plate" was chosen as messenger to Hartford. 12 May 1664 Isaac & Epenetus were made free planters "w/ liberty to act in the choice of public officers...in that plantation." 13 Dec 1664 Isaac & Thomas Wickes (1180) were chosen to collect rate (support) & see to comfort of new minister Eliphalet Jones. 30 Dec 1666 Isaac was named in Nicoll's confirmatory patent. 1669 showed he had land in East Field, commonage & meadowlands.

3 July 1670 Isaac & Thomas Powell named executors of the will of Thomas Wickes, which indicates closeness of Isaac's & Thomas' friendship.

12 Apr 1671 Isaac named as Town overseer. In Apr 1672 he shared 7th farm in Ten Farm allotment at Crabmeadow Little Neck w/ Thomas Wickes 2nd (1168), John Green (5092, husb of Elizabeth Jarvis) & others. 6 Oct 1673 Isaac & 3 others appt committee to ask Dutch authorities in New Amsterdam (who had reconquered colony from British) not to exact pledge of allegiance from Huntington but to put town on good behaviour for a yr.

Aft British finally took over what was now NY Colony, Gov Sir Edmond Andros ruled harshly. In Apr 1681 Isaac & Epenetus, along w/ Jonas "Oram" Wood (4936) & Thomas Wickes 2nd were imprisoned w/o trial in NY for seeking redress of town's grievances. On their release, town voted to pay their expenses & any damages. In spite of obvious risk, on 24 Sept that same yr Isaac was 1 of deputies on town's behalf to review hostility emerging from Andros' tyranny. Fortunately, Andros was recalled b/4 there was further trouble.

Also in 1681 Isaac acquired more land: 5 acres adjoining his holdings in East Field & 16-18 acres on N side of path to Stony Brook. He was appt town constable 1 Apr 1682. In 1683 his ratable (taxable) estate was valued at 177 pounds, 10 shillings. (Cf Wicks/Jarvis Notes.4, p 20) He & Epenetus became 2 of 3 commissioners to constitute Town Court on 7 Apr 1684.

15 Mar 1687 he submitted bill for 5 pounds, 5 shillings, 6 pence to town for expenses in town service. This incl 2 trips of 11 & 5 days to NYC. On 4 Apr he & James Chichester (6220) were named commissioners. He was apparently town clerk at this time also. 20 Sept chosen to serve as assessor for 3 1/2 pence per pound tax ordered by colony govt. 2 Apr 1688 again named commissioner.

HUSBAND Isaac PLATT-1178 Yr of Birth 1633
WIFE Elizabeth WOOD-1179 Yr of Birth 1645

Last appearance in Town Records on 1 Apr 1690 when he added 9 acres on S side of path to Stony Brook.

His will, dated 22 May 1691, left to eldest son Jonas house next to Jonathan Jarvis (5088), some land, animals & grain; to wife 1/3 of all other lands so long as she remained widow; to younger sons John, Joseph & Jacob equal division of remaining lands; to dau Elizabeth 5 pounds; to 4 sons & dau Mary equal division of remaining goods & chattels. 2nd son John was executor; overseers bro Epenetus & bro-in-law Jonas Wood.

WIFE - Elizabeth WOOD-1179

B & m dates from Ed Wickes, confirmed by Robertson, Vol 3, p 115. She was prob b in Hempstead, LI. D date: named in husb/s 1691 will.

She & her sis Phebe (6437) were m. to the bros Isaac & Epenetus Platt.

CHILD 1 - Elizabeth PLATT-2914

She m. a Mr. Brush, per JMF. Ed Wickes says she m Samuel Griffin & gives m. date (source?). This makes her Mary Platt's great-grandmother (cf Pedigree). Ed also gives b place Derby, New Haven Co, CT, but this unlikely since her parents were well established in Huntington from 1663 on. .

She was named in father's 1691 will, but only as "Mary."

CHILD 2 - Jonas PLATT-2915

He m. Sarah Scudder & had 4 sons: Obadiah & Timothy, who moved to Fairfield, CT; Jesse & Isaac 2nd, who remained in Huntington.

Named in father's 1691 will as principle beneficiary. However, he quitclaimed his interest in all property received from his father to his 3 younger bros 6 Sept 1696. [All info from Robertson, Vol 2, p 102].

CHILD 3 - John PLATT-1177

Source: Platt Genealogy [cf Philip Platt #1175 for citation]. If correct that he m Hannah (?) Smith(?), this made him Mary Platt's (601) grandfather while his sis Elizabeth (2914) was her great-grandmother!

He was executor of father's 1691 will & received some land. He was given more by bro Jonas in 1696 & exchanged lands w bro Joseph (2917) 2 Aug 1699. Robertson [Vol 2, p 102] says little more know abt him.

CHILD 4 - Mary PLATT-2916

Named in father's 1691 will. If she was married, name not given.

CHILD 5 - Joseph PLATT-2917

Named in father's 1691 will. Little known abt him other than land transfers mentioned in bro Jonas' (2915) & John's (1177) notes.

CHILD 6 - Jacob PLATT-2918

Named in father's 1691 will. Little know abt him other than land transfer mentioned in bro Jonas' (2915) note.

HUSBAND Jonathan ROGERS-4948 Yr of Birth
WIFE Rebecca WICKES-1182 Yr of Birth 1645

HUSBAND - Jonathan ROGERS-4948

Bpt & d dates from deForest [cf Thos Rogers #4951 for citation]. M date from Ed Wickes, source unknown. Info on all Jonathan's 5 children from Robertson [cf Wm Rogers 4949 for citation].

Presumably moved from Southampton to Huntington w/ father, mother & younger sibs abt 1653-56, when he was approaching 20. He was admitted freeman at Huntington 12 May 1664. Served there as rate gatherer, fence viewer & overseer. Operated saw mill at Cold Spring. [All from deForest]

In 1683 his ratable (taxable) estate was valued at 204 pounds, more than any of his Huntington kinsmen. (Isaac Platt was next w/ 177 pounds.) Cf Wicks/Jarvis Notes Part 4, p 20 for complete list & source. If Ed Wickes' d date correct (1707), he had already deeded his lands in parcels to his children (b/n 1699 & 1706 according to Robertson).

WIFE - Rebecca WICKES-1182

B & d dates: Ed Wickes. If b date correct, she may have been oldest child. Supporting this is fact she had 3 children in June 1670, when her father wrote his will. Thus the 1st child must have been b. no later than 1666, which would mean she was m. abt 1665 at presumptive age of 20. Even at that age she would have been 9 yrs younger than her husb. If her 2 bro's b. dates are anywhere near correct, it's impossible she could have been b. aft them & been m. & had 3 children by 1670. Ed say her d.date based on a deed.

Her father (1180) & Jonathan's (Wm, 4949) seem to have stayed together in their migrations around New England & LI, which suggest Rebecca & her future husb knew each other from childhood, altho he was much older than her.

Named in father's will (1670) as "Reb." He left her 40 shillings & "to her 3 children 20 s each of them." Since her known 3rd child (Obadiah, 2677) has firmly estab b date in 1678, will shows she must have had 1 or more other children who d b/n 1670-76. That is, there must have been another child beside sons Joseph & John living in 1670 who d. aft that date.

All info on her children from Robertson [cf husb's note 4948 for citation].

CHILD 1 - John ROGERS-6246

B date est from fact grandfather Thos Wickes (1180) mentioned mother "Reb's" 3 children in his 1670 will.

He m Mary ____. Father deeded him land in 1699.

CHILD 2 - Joseph ROGERS-6247

B date: cf bro John's note 6246.

His father deeded land to him in 1701.

CHILD 3 - Obadiah ROGERS-2677

B & d dates from Ed Wickes. Obadiah d "in his 81st yr," so if d date correct his b yr is certain. His father deeded some of land to him 1701-02.

HUSBAND	Jonathan ROGERS-4948	Yr of Birth
WIFE	Rebecca WICKES-1182	Yr of Birth 1645

CHILD 4 - Mary ROGERS-6248

B date est from reputed 3rd child (Obadiah, 2677).

She m Jacob Brush.

CHILD 5 - Samuel ROGERS-6249

B date est from that of reputed 3rd & 4th children.

His father deeded land to him 15 Jan 1706.

ESSEX COUNTY, MA BIOGRAPHICAL REVIEW

Within this book's 630 pages are more than 450 biographies of this county's leading citizens when the book was first issued in 1898. Data includes birth, marriage and other family information. Many of the persons profiled are descendants of the original colonists and, whenever possible, the authors have traced ancestral lines and collateral kinship. This newly-indexed 1994 paperback reprint sells for$38.00. Order # B353

A Book of Many Names...

Not in NEHGS!

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE TOWN OF PROVIDENCE, RI

(Subtitled: Otherwise called The Town Old Book, The Short Old Book, The Burnt Old Book, and Sometimes Called The book with Brass Clasps.)

This is the second in a series of volumes of Providence, RI records. In 1891, the town of Providence appointed a committee to begin transcribing and publishing the early records of the town. The result was a series of 21 volumes published between 1892 and 1915, which provide a wealth of historical and genealogical data on this important early town. Vol. 2 contains many grants, commissions and purchases of land, with dates ranging from the early to mid 1600s. This is an indexed, paperback, 220-page reprint of the 1893 edition. $18.00. Order # PV02

A GAZETTEER OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Contains descriptions of all the counties, towns and districts in the state, its principal mountains, rivers, waterfalls, harbors, islands and fashionable resorts. For genealogists, there are names of the first settlers of each town, names of the first ministers, plus data on prominent citizens, and, some individual biographies. The arrangement of material and a new index makes this an easy reference for those researching the history of NH and its people. This is an indexed, paperback 286-page edition of the original 1849 Gazetteer by John Hayward. $22.00. Order # HO99.

GEORGIA FAMILIES: A BIBLIOGRAPHIC LISTING OF BOOKS ABOUT GEORGIA FAMILIES

More than 1100 Georgia surnames are referenced in this major new work by Donald M. Hehir. He provides, in one source, a comprehensive listing of all printed Georgia genealogies that have made their way into major library collections across the U.S. The author searched many genealogical libraries, including the Library of Congress, the National Genealogical Society Library, and the Library of the Daughters of the American Revolution, along with historical association libraries from Massachusetts to California. Arranged for ease of use, the entries are presented alphabetically by surname, with a cross index to family and secondary names. No Georgia family genealogist should be without this time-saving volume. Published 1993; 147 pages; indexed; paperback. $16.50. Order # H133.

JOHN WILKES

Focus on THE JURY SYSTEM

As the New England county system began to grow, there was a need for the towns to supply men to fill various offices. We have already discussed the offices of marshal and messenger [GMN 10:25-26, 32]. We turn now to a group of offices which were perhaps not as exalted, but required more manpower. These are the ancient English institutions of the grand jury, the petit jury and the coroner's jury. We will examine each of these in turn, looking at the responsibilities of each jury, the manner in which the members of the jury were selected, and how they conducted their offices.

GRAND JURY

Black's Law Dictionary gives the following definition for the grand jury:

> A jury of inquiry who are summoned and returned by the sheriff to each session of the criminal courts, and whose duty is to receive complaints and accusations in criminal cases, hear the evidence adduced on the part of the state, and find bills of indictment in cases where they are satisfied a trial ought to be had [p. 993 (Revised Fourth Edition, 1968)].

This is, of course, a modern definition. In the period of the Great Migration, when the institution was just being adapted to the New England landscape, the overall purpose was the same, but the process differed in many details.

The grand jury sometimes had different names, the scope of its jurisdiction might be expressed in a variety of ways, and the number of jurors varied from one jurisdiction to another. In Plymouth Colony at the court of 7 March 1636/7, the jury is presented in this manner:

> The Names of the Great Inquest or Grand Jury, sworn to inquire of all abuses within the body of this government, &c.
> John Atwood, gen.
> Jonathan Brewster
> John Winslowe
> Kenelme Winslowe
> Will[ia]m Gilson
> Edward Foster
> Will[ia]m Hatch
> John Dunhame
> Mr. John Vincent
> Manasseth Kempton
> Edward Banges
> John Weekes
> Christopher Wadsworthe
> John Cooke, Junior
> Steephen Tracy
> Richard Church (xvi)
> Mr. Edmond Freeman [PCR 1:54].

The Roman numeral "xvi" after Richard Church may indicate that this was the full jury, and that Edmond Freeman was first alternate.

The towns selected a predetermined number of men, who were sent to the county court to make up the full grand jury, as we shall demonstrate with examples from Essex and York County Courts.

In a Salem town meeting on 11 November 1648, there were > Chosen for Grandjurymen

> Mr. Verrin
> Mr. Batter
> Thomas Trusler
> Rich[ard] Prince
> Mr. Alderman
> W[illia]m King
> Thomas Putnam
> Jno. Neale [STR 1:104].

At the Salem Quarter Court of 26 December 1648, we find a complete listing of the grandjury, the first eight of whom are the eight men enumerated just above, stated to be "all of Salem." These eight were followed by another eight: Nicholas Potter, Nathaniel Hanforth, Edward Lewis, James Axey and John Ramsdell, all of Lynn; William Allen of Manchester; William Vinson of Gloucester; and Edward Spalding of Wenham [EQC 1:153]. Clearly some system of proportional representation is at work in the composition of the grand jury, perhaps population, perhaps assessed valuation, but more detailed examination would be needed to know just what this principle might be.

The arrangement was similar in York County, where we find on 12 July 1658

> John Symons, Abra[ham] Conley, Robert Mendum & Will[iam] Ellingham are chosen Grand Jury men for Kittery for the year ensuing.
> Grand Jury men chosen for York, Arthur Bragdon, Ric[hard] Bankes, George Parker, had their oaths given them at a town meeting.
> For Cape Porpus Morgan Howell.
> For Yles of Shoales Mathew Ham.
> For Sacoe Richard Hitchcocke.
> Grand Jury man for Scarborrough Abra[ham] Joclein.
> For Falmouth Mr. Mikill Mittin, Nathaniell Wallis [MPCR 2:70].

Sometimes one town tried to poach on another town's territory in order to fill its quota.

> Brethren and neighbors of Braintree,
> Having underestood that you have, beyond the power of your warrant, chosen John Read, one of our town, to serve upon the Grand Jury, we desire that you would not put any such hindrance unto our comfortable mutual agreement one with another, but that you would desist, and choose some other for that service (26 August 1644) [BTR 1:81].

In a modern grand jury, the evidence is brought before the entire panel by the district attorney or his representative, and the entire panel then votes on the question of whether or not to return an indictment. This does not seem to have been the procedure in colonial New England, and we shall again use the records of the York County Court to examine this aspect of the work of the grand jury.

On 5 July 1670, at a session of the York County Court held at Wells, the list of "presentments made & given in by the Grand Jury whose names are affixed hereunto" filled seven printed pages [MPCR 2:196-203]. After the presentments we find

> The names of the Grand Jury
> Tho[mas] Curtis
> Henery Williams
> John Read
> Capt. John Davess
> Thomas Wills
> James Grant
> James Gibbones
> Willia[m] Love
> John Allcocke
> James Gouch
> Tho[mas] Spinny
> John Merridath
> Jeffery Currier
> Charles Potum

We will sample here only a few of the presentments at this court.

> We present Mr. John Bonighton Senior for his contempt of the Massatusetts authority. JohnDavess, James Gibbines.
> We present Catterne Leighton alias Hammonds for having a child unlawfully begotten out of wedlock bond. Jury.
> We present Marke Roe for breach of the Sabbath for going to sea out of the harbor on the Lord's Day where the ministry was. John Merridah.
> We present Richard Nayson for not frequenting of the place of God's public worship on the Lord's Day. Ric[hard] Nayson owned in Court that he attended the public meetings which went by the name of Quakers' meeting. Tho[mas] Wells, William Love.
> We present John Blany for selling of wine by the gallon to several persons. Jury.
> We present Jeremiah Guttridg for not frequenting the place of God's public worship on the Lord's day. Hene[ry] Greenland, Dygory Jefferys

The name or names after each presentment would seem to be the persons who actually brought the infraction before the grand jury. In most instances, these are the grand jury men themselves.

In some cases, however, the presentments are made by others. In the last example above, the presenters were Henry Greenland and Degory Jeffreys, who were not on the grand jury for this court. Jeffreys had served as constable of Kittery in 1664, and would be on the grand jury in 1674, but does not seem to have had any official standing in 1670 [GDMNH 375]. Greenland held none of these offices, and was himself in trouble with the courts on a number of occasions [GDMNH 288]. Furthermore, in 1667 Greenland had successfully sued "Jeremiah Gutteridg" for slander and defamation. Apparently the grand jury could be used to pursue personal vendettas, although this does not seem to have been common.

This attempted misuse of the grand jury was undoubtedly mitigated by the requirement that the entire grand jury vote on each presentment. The only evidence in this list for such a vote is in the cases where the presentment is made by the entire jury. But, as we shall see at the end of this article, the presentment had to be "tried by the Grand Jury" [MPCR 1:316].

PETIT JURY

Black's Law Dictionary gives a very simple and straightforward definition of the petit jury:

> The ordinary jury of twelve men for the trial of a civil or criminal action. So called to distinguish it from the grand jury [p. 994].

We note here two major differences between the grand jury and the petit jury. The first is that the grand jury proposes, whereas the petit jury disposes. The second is that the petit jury handles both civil and criminal matters, whereas the grand jury is limited to criminal actions. These features are of course in no way different from modern juries.

An early, typical record for a petit jury is found in the Plymouth Colony records, on 4 October 1636:

> The jury impanelled this Court, for trial of actions & abuses, were Jonathan Brewster, Nath. Sowther, John Cooke, Junior, James Cudworth, John Holmes, Kanelm Wynslow, Josiah Winslow, Anthony Annable, Will[iam] Hatch, Christopher Wadsworth, Tho. Cushman, Edw. Bangs [PCR 1:44].

Here the panel is referred to as being for "trial of actions & abuses," the actions being the civil cases and the abuses the criminal. Compare this with the example above from the Plymouth Colony grand jury of 7 March 1636/7, which was called to "inquire of all the abuses" [PCR 1:54].

The selection of men for the petit jury was done in the same manner as for the grand jury, with a major difference. Looking again at Salem, we find on 19 December 1648

> For the petty jury
> [Mr. William Browne]
> Thomas Gardner Senior
> Peter Palfrey
> [Jeffry Massy]
> [John Hardye]
> Richard Bishop
> [STR 1:104]
> Joseph Pope
> George Gardiner
> John Robinson
> Henery Herrick
> [Will[iam] Dodge]
> John Hathorne

A week later, at a court held at Salem on 26 December 1648, we find the following > Jury of trials: Mr. Thomas Gardner, Sr., Peter Palfree, George Gardner, John Hathorne, Joseph Pope, Richard Bishopp and Henry Hericke, all of Salem; and John Gillo, Henry Collins, Richard Mower, John Deacon and William Knight, all of Lynn [EQC 1:153].

Of the twelve men proposed by the town of Salem, only seven appear on the county jury actually impanelled a week later. This implies a selection process at the court itself, although undoubtedly very different from the jury selection process we are familiar with today. Of the five names submitted by the town of Salem but not selected, four were enclosed in brackets in the town records. Apparently the town clerk went back and annotated his records after the court session, but not completely accurately.

The jury of twelve was then filled out with five men from Lynn. The early records of that town are now lost, but they presumably also submitted a list of ten or so men who might serve. Note that the towns of Manchester, Gloucester and Wenham, which had one man each on the grand jury for this same court, were not represented on the petit jury.

In Rhode Island at this time there was no selection process at court. Each town chose three men, who then went directly onto the petit jury. On 3 January 1655[/6], "Mr. Will[iam] Almy, John Briggs and Samuell Wilbur are chosen [by the town of Portsmouth] for jurymen for the next General Court to be held at Warwick" [PoTR 69]. On 8 March 1655[/6], "the town [of Warwick] proceeding to choice of jurymen, these that are chosen are to attend the General Court at hand to be holden in this town, Mr. John Weekes, Mr. Henry Redducke, Richard Townsend" [WarTR 92].

At the "General Court of Trials held at Warwicke the 11th of March, 1655-6" there is a list of

> Jury Men
> Richard Waterman
> Thomas Harris
> Tho[mas] Roberts, wanting
> Mr. William Almie
> Mr. John Briggs
> Samuel Wilbore
> Obadiah Holmes, put out
> Mr. John Sanford
> Joseph Torrey
> John Greene
> Mr. John Wickes, foreman
> Mr. Henrie Reddarke
> Thomas Layton
> Richard Townsend
> James Sweete, for Thomas L. [RICR 1:326]

The jurymen sent by Providence were Richard Waterman, Thomas Harris and Thomas Roberts, but, the latter not appearing, was replaced by Thomas Layton, who was in turn replaced by James Sweet. The Newport jurymen would seem to be Obadiah Holmes, Joseph Torrey and John Greene. Obadiah Holmes was "put out,' and the only remaining name, presumably replacing him to make out the panel of twelve, was John Sanford of Portsmouth. Apparently the court was willing to let the balance of three jurymen for each of the four Rhode Island towns go by the wayside in the interest of getting on with the business of the day.

As with so many of the lists we use in the Great Migration Study Project, close examination turns up useful tidbits of information which may help us in many ways. In this instance, we are able to tell that the John Greene of this jury was the Newport man and not the Warwick man of that name. In like manner, jury lists frequently assist us in tracing the migrations of some of our subjects.

CORONER'S JURY

An encyclopedia entry for JURY opens in an interesting way:

> A jury is always a body of local laymen officially summoned to answer questions under oath. This is true even of the coroner's jury, which operates outside the judical system and investigates suspicious deaths [Encyclopaedia Britannica (1973) 13:159].

Records of coroner's inquests are scattered throughout the town and county records of New England. They provide much insight (and entertainment), as they memorialize the many ways that ordinary human beings can find themselves in fatal circumstances.

> The verdict of us whose names are underwritten concerning the death of Thomas Sleade, servant of Robert Lay of Six Myle Iland, given in to the constable of Hartford this 9th day of Nov[ember] 1652.
> We do find that the said party going against his master's command with his master's canoe, into a place of danger, that is, to the mill dam, is guilty of his own death being drowned.
> Andrew Warner
> Grego[ry] Wilterton
> Tho[mas] Standlye
> John Bernard
> Jesp[e]r Gunn
> Tho[mas] Selden
> Nath[aniel] Willett
> Jo[hn] Stedman [RPCC 115]

Note that all eight of the men on this coroner's jury were residents of Hartford, and they were making their report to the constable of that town. There is no attempt here to obtain proportional representation from all the towns in the county.

There are at least two reasons for this. First, the authorities would wish to have men who were familiar with the neighborhood where the mishap occurred, and probably also familiar with the deceased. Second, there was a desire to undertake the inquest as soon as possible, while the evidence was fresh, and this would be facilitated by gathering the jury from one town, rather than waiting to bring in jurors from a greater distance.

> Upon the untimely death of Richard Elles
> Richard Elles being drowned and cast upon the shore on Prudence Island information being given to the magistrate the Crouner's Inquest being panelled they made inquiry how he > came by his death upon the eighth day of August 1661 and the inquest found that he the said Richard Elles was drowned by stress of weather accidentally.

> The Names of the Crouner and Inquest
> Mr. William Baulston Crouner
> Mr. John Room foreman
> Mr. John Briggs
> Mr. Pettar Talmon
> Mr. Lott Strainge
> Mr. John Albrow
> Mr. Samwell Sanford
> Anthony Emory
> William Bellinge
> Richard Bulgar
> Jariard Borden
> Henory Lake
> James Badcock

This is one of the few records of coroner's juries which names the coroner himself. William Baulston was a Portsmouth town councillor in 1661, and perhaps was chosen as coroner for this reason.

The coroner's jury was not always able to come to a firm conclusion. On 21 April 1659,

> The carcass of a dead Indian being found dead in the limits of this town of Warwicke immediately a warrant was granted forth by the Deputy to produce forthwith a coroner inquest which forthwith was done, the names of them are as followeth
> Stukly Waskote foreman
> Mr. Walter Todd
> Mr. Mathias Harvy
> Christopher Onthanke
> James Sweet
> John Gereaerdy
> Samuell Stafford
> John Sweet
> Thomas Greene
> John Wickes Jr.
> Edward Marshall
> John Herwood
> The verdict Warwicke the 20th of April 1659 that whereas John Sweet going out to look after his cattle found an Indian dead within the precincts of the town of Warwicke, almost eaten up with wild beasts and by Menneachicke's information it is conceived it is his brother which sometimes lived with Mr. Paine of Seacuncke, we being the grand inquest called to make inquiry have made what inquiry or search we can, and cannot find what should be the occasion of his death [WarTR 210-11].

Perhaps the most frequent cause of death found by these inquests was drowning, but it was not always accidental:

> [20 October 1675] We whose names are underwritten, being sworn to view the dead body of John Fallowell, do find that he was accessory to his own death, by willful going into a deep pond, called Loutt Pond, and drowned himself [PCR 5:182].

> [22 July 1676] We find, that Bethyah Howland, junior, came to her death by being drowned or stifled in a tub of clothes and water, viz: that she of herself cast herself into the said tub of clothes and water [PCR 5:208].

As one might expect, suspicion of homicide might also occasion a coroner's inquest, and this could be intertwined with evidence of domestic conflict.

> We, whose names are underwritten, being impanelled upon a coroner's inquest by the honored James Browne, Assistant, to sit upon the corpse of Roger Amnadowne, deceased, occasioned by some late strife between his wife and him, hearing all evidences, pondering all circumstances, and viewing the corpse, we find no wound nor bruise that might hasten his death [PCR 5:141].

Sometimes the coroner's inquest led directly to a trial.

> [24 March 1646/7] Charles Frost saith that he being about his father's door looking into the marsh saw three geese light in the marsh, as he though, by a little puddle of water, and he taking a piece ran down into the marsh to get a shot at them and he coming there crept along on his belly. Warwick Heard seeing the same three geese light, and being crept into the brush & long grass before him, he not knwoing him to be there, and it being after sunset, Warwicke Heard being upon his knees ready to give fire, and the wind blowing the skirts of his jacket abroad, Charles Frost lifting up his head as he was creeping thought it to be a goose picking herself, presently gave fire and so shot him.

The coroner's inquest did not think Frost guilty, but a grand jury indicted him for murder, and a petit jury found him not guilty [MPCR 1:108-9].

Many of these inquest records provide the sort of information and insight into the human condition that we now expect to obtain from certain segments of the news media.

> [22 October 1668] We, the jury of inquest appointed to view the corpse of Isacke Robinson, Junior, do apprehend, according to view and testimony, that the means of his death was by going into the pond to fetch two geese; the pond being full of weedy grass, which we conceive to be the instrumental cause of his death, by being entangled therein [PCR 5:7].

> [5 March 1671/2] We, whose names are underwritten, being summoned together by order from the Governor to view the corpse of Mr. John Barnes, and to give in a verdict how we judge he came by his death, do judge, that being before his barn door in the street, standing stroking or feeling of his bull, the said bull suddenly turned about upon him and gave him a great wound with his horn on his right thigh, near eight inches long, in which his flesh was torn both broad and deep, as we judge; of which wound, together with his wrench of his neck or pain thereof (of which he complained), he immediately languished; after about 32 hours after he died [PCR 5:88].

Finally, we present a single, concise record which appears to encompass the work of all three types of jury, with the petit jury either doing the work of the coroner's jury, or confirming the earlier work of such a jury [MPCR 1:316]:

> That whereas James Robinson of Black Poynte, cooper, was indicted the 26 day of July 1666, upon suspicion of murdering Christopher Collines of Black Poynte, at his Majesty's Court holden in Cascoe, and being tried by the Grand Jury of this Court & committed to us, the jury of life and death, we find that the said Collines was slain by misadventure & culpable of his own death & not upon any former malice, & therefore the said James Robinson not guilty of murder. July 29th, 1666.

Hardcover, 6 1/4" x 9 1/4", 350 pp., lists publications and price list for the Rhode Island Genealogical Register. Order from: Lucille B. Beaman, P.O. Box 585, East Princeton, MA 01517. Price: $100.00

There have been fifteen previous volumes of the Rhode Island Genealogical Register, each volume containing abstracts of wills from the beginning of Rhode Island in 1636 to 1850. These 12,000 wills and probate records are now indexed in this volume, #16, making this genealogical resource readily available to the researcher. The preface explains the format of the volume and provides the abbreviations of Rhode Island cities and town used in this index. The alphabetical listing of testators(trix) is followed by a brief listing of town probate records giving specific volumes and pages for each town in Rhode Island, a brief index to family articles, an index to the "They Left Rhode Island" articles and Newport cemeteries, all published in the first fifteen volumes of the Rhode Island Genealogical Register. For anyone with early Rhode Island ancestry, this book is a valuable aide to research.

Mr. Thomas Cooke of Windsor, Connecticut, Glazier, from 1683-1724, by Thomas Boslooper, PhD., 1993. Paper covered, spiral bound, 8 1/2" x 11", 174 pp., maps of Windsor, facsimilies of documents. Order from: Thomas Boslooper, PhD., 60 Laurel Oak Court, Palm Harbor, FL 34683. Price: $15.00 ppd.

The focus of this book is the presentation of a clear picture of Thomas Cooke and his place in the community of Windsor, Connecticut, as a leading merchant as well as a glazier. Thomas Cooke was involved in many land transactions eventually culminating in the lengthy General Court case over the Nowell property which Thomas Cooke had occupied and improved, and from which he was finally evicted, moving to another part of Windsor. Dr. Boslooper provides extensive coverage of the Court's actions in this case, with reproductions of original documents as well as transcriptions of them plus detailed maps showing where Cooke's properties were located in Windsor. The interest in the lands owned by Thomas Cooke and subsequently by his son, John Cooke, take up the major portion of this study and is carried forward to Thomas Cooke's granddaughter, Jane Allyn who married Odiah Loomis. Through this couple land originally owned by Thomas Cooke apparently became part of the Loomis-Chaffee School campus. With its extensive discussion of the location of various properties in early Windsor, this book will be of interest to those with ancestry in that town as well as to Cooke descendants. Lengthy appendices additionally discuss possible origins of Thomas Cooke and other Cooke families of ancient Windsor.

Polish Roots, by Rosemary A. Chorzempa, 1993, Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. Softbound, 6" x 9", 240 pp. Order from: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. Price: $17.95, plus $3 p & h.

This helpful book begins by telling the researcher with Polish ancestry what records here in the United States will be most apt to provide the needed information. Settlement patterns in this country indicate the presence of Polish churches with important records and

Polish cemeteries, some of whose inscriptions have been copied and indexed. Besides obituaries in local newspapers, the author suggests using Polish-language newspapers that had obituaries, some of which have been indexed. City directories are important for locating individuals between census years and especially from the 1880 census to the 1900 one. Census records, naturalization records, passenger lists and World War I draft registration records are among those at the National Archives Records Centers that will be helpful. In addition, Rosemary Chorzempa provides addresses of Polish Genealogical Societies and of research libraries with Polish materials, with special attention to the LDS Family History Centers. The greater portion of the book deals with research in Poland, and the author provides a brief history of Poland including the political divisions it experienced, a brief discussion of geographic regions with the use of maps and gazeteers to help locate villages, and an overview of other ethnic groups in Poland. These factors have a bearing on the church and civil records, with the author providing addresses and illustrations of actual records. Following chapters on surnames and naming patterns for given

What the Book Reviewers say about

RHODE ISLAND BIOGRAPHICAL AND GENEALOGICAL SKETCH INDEX

by J. Carlyle Parker

"Rhode Island researchers, tired of struggling through scattered resources, will find Parker's latest work a treasure." -- Jane Fletcher Fiske, F.A.S.G., National Genealogical Society Quarterly 80 (September 1992): 225-26.

"This hardbound book has 272 pages plus xlix pages of preface, introduction, list of Abbreviations and Symbols for books indexed. The book is an alphabetic listing of surnames then a given name followed by a key reference which when checked indicates where one can find data on the name. The book aids in finding some 214 (364 volumes) of State, regional, county and city histories, periodical articles, newspaper articles and various directories in Rhode Island 1827-1989. There are some 35,000 index entries. Truly a great work for those who have ancestors in Rhode Island to be able to search this Index and see if they can find some material on the name they are searching. At the end of the book is a Bibliographic Check List of Books Indexed by Author. Then a list of other State-wide Indexes to State, County and City histories and or Biographical Directories. This makes this book a must to all who have Rhode Island families. Be sure to get your copy now while the price is only $29.95 plus $2.00 p&h. Libraries are urged to place this book on the reference shelf. It will not only help researchers but will aid the reference Librarian who is faced with Rhode Island questions." -- Charles D. Townsend, ROTA-GENE (International Genealogy Fellowship of Rotarians) 12 (February 1992): 24.

"It contains approximately 35,000 index entries of about 19,500 biographies. ... When using other biography reference books he [Parker] experienced such success that he compiled this reference for those researching Rhode Island records." -- Genealogical Helper 45 (July-August 1991): 183.

"The sources include: state, regional, county and city histories, periodical articles, newspaper articles and biographical directories of Rhode Island." -- Connecticut Nutmegger 24 (June 1991): 136.

"A free list of the titles indexed can be supplied by the publisher." -- Shirley Penna-Oakes, New England Queries & Reviews 1 (1991): 27.

"An excellent reference tool. Of course with the number of Quakers from the Rhode Island area, this is a must. Many other areas were settled from Rhode Islanders, too. I know that there was a large migration from Rhode Island to North Carolina and New Jersey, in addition to other areas as well. Whenever we have access to an index such as this, we may solve our problem by the mere turning of a page." -- Ruby Simonson McNeill, Quaker Queries no. 22 (June 1993): 18.

Rhode Island Biographical and Genealogical Sketch Index may be ordered from the Marietta Publishing Company, 2115 North Denair Avenue, Turlock, CA 95382, (209) 634-9473, for $29.95, plus $2.00 for shipping and handling = $31.95; hardbound; xlix, 272 pages; 1991 (CIP, ISBN 0934153086, LCCN 90-25871, OCLC 22859101). Californians need to include $2.17 for sales tax (7.25%).

ISBN 0-916489-71-X

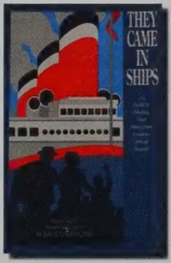
#321...$14.95 (ARC $13.45)

Available March 1997

Although they rank as important sources in recording family history, American citizenship (naturalization) records are often confusing and difficult to find. This generously illustrated guide explains how to incorporate naturalization records into your genealogical research. The methods and techniques you learn from this book will help you discover more about your heritage without wasting precious research hours.

They Came in Ships: A Guide to Finding Your Immigrant Ancestor's Arrival Record (Revised Edition)



By John Phillip Colletta
108 pages, 5 1/2 by 8 1/2, softbound
ISBN 0-916489-42-6

#320...$9.95 (ARC $8.95)

John Colletta has revised this helpful immigration book. In this edition, Mr. Colletta responds to the questions often asked by his readers since the first edition was published. He not only tells you what you need to know to begin your search, but also suggests the most likely places to find that information. He explains the records, demonstrating in sample research scenarios how to use the available indexes and alternative resources to find the ship passenger list that lists your ancestor's name. An entirely new chapter focuses on the challenge of searching for a ship when your ancestor arrived in a year that is not included in any National Archives index. The new edition provides more valuable clues and more useful tips than ever before.

JOHN WICKS

field, purchased land at Menunkatuck from the Indians [Bernard Christian Steiner, A History of the Plantation of Menunkatuck ... (Baltimore 1897), pp. 1-40]. The settlement adopted a civil covenant and became one of the independent "city states" of this period of New England settlement [GMN 4:18]. On 23 October 1640, reference was made in the New Haven records to "the way that goes to Manunkatucke" [NHCR 1:42]. On 6 July 1643, "Mr. Leete and Mr. Disbourough of Manunkatuck were admitted members and received the charge of freeman" at New Haven court, and on the same day "Manunkatuck [was] named Guilforde" [NHCR 1:96].

BRANFORD: On 1 September 1640, the "plantation of Totokett is granted to Mr. Samuell Eaton for such friends as he shall bring over from old England" [NHCR 1:40, 42]. In October 1643 Totokett entered into the Fundamental Agreement and became part of New Haven Colony [NHCR 1:199-200]. On 25 March 1644, it "was ordered that they to whom the affairs of the town is entrusted shall dispose of Totokett according as in their wisdom they see cause" [NHCR 1:126]. By 25 May 1653, the plantation had been renamed Branford and was sending deputies to the General Court [NHCR 2:2].

SOUTHOLD: About the same time that men from Lynn settled at Southampton in 1640, the town of New Haven purchased land on Long Island just to the north of Southampton, at a place called Yennicock [NHCR 1:463]. The Reverend John Youngs and families associated with him, who had come to New England in 1637 and first settled at Salem, moved to this tract of land, which was soon renamed Southold, the parish in Suffolk, England, where Youngs had earlier resided. On 6 April 1642, "John Touttle of Yennycok [was] deputed by the Court to be constable to order the affairs of that plantation" [NHCR 1:70]. The land in Southold remained the property of New Haven until 1649 [NHCR 1:463].

STAMFORD: On 1 July 1640, Captain Nathaniel Turner, as agent for New Haven, purchased land at Toquams [NHCR 1:45]. On 4 November 1640, New Haven General Court noted that whereas "Andrew Ward and Rob[er]t Coe of Weathersfield were deputed by Weathersfield men, the 30th of the 8th month commonly called October 1640, to treat with the court at Newhaven about the plantation (lately purchased by the said town) called Toquams, which being considered of, it was agreed upon by the said court and parties aforesaid, that they shall have the said plantation," under three conditions, the third of which was "that they join in all points with this plantation in the form of government here settled, according to the agreement betwixt this court and Mr. Samuell Eaton about the plantation of Totokett" [NHCR 1:45]. On 27 October 1641, "Andrew Warde and Francis Bell, of Rippowams [another name for Toquams] [were] admitted members of this court, and, on the same day, "Thurston Rayner [was] chosen constable for Rippowams" [NHCR 1:58]. On 6 April 1642, "the plantation of Rippowams is named Stamforde" [NHCR 1:69].

GREENWICH: On 18 July 1640, Robert Feake and Daniel Patrick, residents of Watertown, bought the land immediately to the west of Stamford, and began the settlement of Greenwich. Feake submitted to New Haven rule in 1641, but Patrick soon overruled Feake, and adhered to New Netherland [NHCR 2:144-45]. In 1650 the Dutch ceded the town of Greenwich to New Haven Colony, and eventually Greenwich was reduced to being a part of Stamford. In 1665 Greenwich was reestablished as a separate town [Spencer P. Mead, Ye Historie of ye Town of Greenwich ..., pp. 4-9, 23-28].

RHODE ISLAND

More than any of the other New England colonies, Rhode Island owes its existence to the resolution of the religious dissensions which abounded in Massachusetts Bay Colony in the middle years of the1630s. For some portions of the earliest years of settlement, these four settlements went their separate ways. Portsmouth and Newport were on occasion joined into one polity, and at other times were on their own. In 1643 Roger Williams brought the four towns together into one governmental body, but this arrangement broke down from time to time, only to be reestablished again.

PROVIDENCE: The town of Providence had its origin in the banishment of the Rev. Roger Williams from Massachusetts Bay Colony in the winter of 1635-36. Williams was soon joined, in 1636 and 1637, by many of the families who had supported him during his years in Salem. Despite the formation of the towns of Portsmouth and Newport on Rhode Island in 1638 and 1639, Providence remained separate from all other governments until 1643, and so may be considered one of the independent "city states" of that period. Only after Roger Williams travelled to England in 1643 and 1644 to obtain a patent did Providence, Portsmouth and Newport (soon to be joined by Warwick) gather together into one government. As with so many other New England towns, the earliest records of the town of Providence, regardless of subject matter, were entered all together in the same volume. Only with the passage of decades did separate series of volumes appear for different aspects of the town's business [GMN 8:19-22].

PORTSMOUTH: Portsmouth, at the northern end of Rhode Island, was established in early 1638 by several families who had been influenced by the religious teachings of Anne Hutchinson and had as a result been banished from Boston. Within a year of arrival at Portsmouth, this group had split within itself, a portion of the population remaining at Portsmouth and the remainder founding the new town of Newport. For a year after the separation, Portsmouth maintained an independent existence as one of New England's "city states" [GMN 4:17]. In 1640 the two towns formed a joint government. Some parts of the earliest Portsmouth town records have been published in various places, but not according to modern standards of historical editing [GMN 4:11-14].

NEWPORT: Newport, at the southern end of Rhode Island, was founded in 1639 after a schism at Portsmouth. For the first year of its existence, Newport functioned as one of New England's many independent "city states" [GMN 4:113-14]. In 1640 Newport and Portsmouth agreed to work together as a single governmental unit. Later in the 1640s Portsmouth and Newport joined with Providence and Warwick to operate as the Colony of Rhode Island, but on occasion Newport and Portsmouth separated themselves from the other two towns. Records published by John Russell Bartlett as "Newport Records: 1639 to 1647" are for the most part the records of the joint polity of Newport and Portsmouth and not of the town of Newport itself [RICR 1:87-128; GMN 4:11-13]. Most of the colonial town records for Newport were lost during the Revolutionary War, although many early deeds survive in manuscript form and remain to be published [GMN 4:12-13].

WARWICK: Samuel Gorton, the leading settler of Warwick, had outdone his contemporaries in the other Rhode Island settlements by being sent away from Massachusetts Bay, Plymouth Colony, Providence and Newport. In early 1643, he and some like-minded men purchased a tract of land south of Providence from the Indians. By 1647 this town had joined the other three Rhode Island settlements in the government organized under that charter obtained by Roger Williams in England in 1644 [GMN 9:27-30].

NEW HAMPSHIRE

New Hampshire did not become a separate colony until 1679. Prior to that time, the four towns considered in this section had first lived an independent existence and then had been incorporated into Massachusetts Bay Colony. The two earliest towns, Portsmouth (originally a group of scattered settlements at the mouth of the Piscataqua) and Dover, had been established privately prior to the establishment of Massachusetts Bay Colony. The other two, Exeter and Hampton, had been created separately by religious refugees from Massachusetts Bay.

Not long after these towns were incorporated into Massachusetts Bay, this latter colony chose in 1643 to create its first counties. The most northerly of these, Norfolk County (not to be confused with the distinct Norfolk County formed late in the eighteenth century), had as its constituent towns the four settlements listed here, along with Salisbury and Haverhill, the two Massachusetts Bay plantations north of the Merrimack River. Portsmouth and Dover, having years of experience running their own governments, were not willing to go along with this arrangement, and continued with a separate court system, calling themselves Piscataqua County or the County of Portsmouth and Dover. When the colony of New Hampshire was created, Norfolk County was dissolved, with the four northern towns becoming New Hampshire, while Salisbury and Haverhill were absorbed into Essex County.

PORTSMOUTH: In 1622 the Council for New England granted a patent to Sir Ferdinando Gorges, Captain John Mason and other West Country merchants for land along the Piscataqua River. These merchants sent out David Thomson to secure this patent. Thomson soon moved on to Massachusetts Bay, and was replaced eventually by Walter Neal and Ambrose Gibbons. Like the fishing plantations further Down East, the settlement along the Piscataqua was in these early days more a commercial operation than a fully civilized town. There were, in fact, several different nuclei of settlement along the Piscataqua. The oldest was that at Odiorne's Point, which was at times named Piscataqua in the more restricted sense. Strawbery Banke was at the present location of downtown Portsmouth, and Newichawannock was further up the river, on what is now the Maine side of the river, and eventually grew into the town of Berwick. The area at the mouth of the river on the north side was probably also considered part of the larger sphere of Piscataqua at this time, and eventually became the town of Kittery. Dover, further up the river and settled at a later date, was never within the sphere of the Piscataqua settlements. As these settlements developed into a town, the name Strawbery Banke was used, until 1653, when the settlers petitioned to have the name changed to Portsmouth [MBCR 3:309].

DOVER: Although the claim has been made that Dover was settled at the same time as Portsmouth, in 1623, there is no certain evidence of the arrival there of Edward Hilton, the founder of the town, prior to 1628 (although he could conceivably have been there a year or two earlier) [GMN 2:29, 6:11-14]. Hilton returned to England and obtained a patent for this settlement in early 1630. Within two years he had sold the patent to a group of Bristol merchants, who in turn deeded the settlement to "[t]he Lord Say, the Lord Brook, Sir Richard Saltonstall, … and others" about 1633. In 1639 Dover would have been classified among the independent "City States" of New England [GMN 4:17]. Finally, in 1641 the Puritan lords turned the plantation over to the Massachusetts government.

EXETER: As a consequence of the resolution of the Antinomian Controversy at the end of 1637, some of those who left Massachusetts Bay moved south to settle Portsmouth in Rhode Island. Others, incuding the Reverend John Wheelwright himself, moved north of the Merrimack River in 1638 and founded the town of Exeter. On 6 January 1638/9, Boston church dismissed Wheelwright and eight other men to "the Chuch of Christ at the Falls of Paschataqua if they be rightly gathered and ordered" [BChR 23]. On 4 July 1639, thirty-five men entered into the Exeter Combination, an agreement for the independent government of the town [NHPP 9:250-51; GMN 8:3-6]. For the next four years, Exeter existed as one of the independent "city states" of New England. In 1643 Exeter submitted to Massachusetts Bay au-
